DBQ

This task is based on the accompanying documents. Some of these documents have been edited for the purpose of this task. This task is designed to test your ability to work with historic documents. As you analyze the documents, take into account both the source of the document and the author's point of view.

> Historical Context

Africans had developed advanced civilizations before the Europeans arrived in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries. Beginning with Aksum (Ethiopia today) in East Africa in the 300's, the kingdoms, empires, and cities arose and declined. In west Africa, three empires- Ghana, Mali, and Songhai- controlled the gold and salt trade. Between 1000 and 1500, cities on Africa's east coast also gained wealth and power through trade. There were several centers of advanced civilization in Africa between 300 and 1400.

> Directions

The following question is based on the accompanying documents. As you analyze the documents, take into account both the source of the document and the author's point of view. Be sure to:

1. Carefully read the document-based question. Consider what you already know about the topic. How would you answer the question if you had no documents to examine?
2. Now, read each document carefully, underlining key phrases and words that address the document-based question. You may also wish to make notes. Answer the questions which follow each document.
3. Based on your own knowledge and on the information found in the documents, formulate a thesis that directly answers the question.
4. Organize supportive and relevant information into a brief outline.
5. Write a well-organized essay proving your thesis. The essay should be logically presented and should include information both from the documents and from your own knowledge outside the documents.

An Account of the Slave Trade on the Coast of Africa Alexander Falconbridge, 1788

An Essay on the Slavery and Commerce of the Human Species, Particularly the African Thomas Clarkson, 1788 This essay was honoured with the first prize in the University of Cambridge for the year 1785 and was influential for Clarkson's further career Thomas Clarkson was an English abolitionist and a leading campaigner against the slave trade in the British Empire He was not only instrumental in achieving the passage of the Slave Trade Act of 1807 which ended British trade in slaves but also campaigned for the abolition of slavery worldwide Atlantic Africa and the Spanish Caribbean, 1570-1640 David Wheat, 2016-03-09 This work resituates the Spanish Caribbean as an extension of the Luso African Atlantic world from the late sixteenth to the mid seventeenth century when the union of the Spanish and Portuguese crowns facilitated a surge in the transatlantic slave trade After the catastrophic decline of Amerindian populations on the islands two major African provenance zones first Upper Guinea and then Angola contributed forced migrant populations with distinct experiences to the Caribbean They played a dynamic role in the social formation of early Spanish colonial society in the fortified port cities of Cartagena de Indias Havana Santo Domingo and Panama City and their semirural hinterlands David Wheat is the first scholar to establish this early phase of the Africanization of the Spanish Caribbean two centuries before the rise of large scale sugar plantations With African migrants and their descendants comprising demographic majorities in core areas of Spanish settlement Luso Africans Afro Iberians Latinized Africans and free people of color acted more as colonists or settlers than as plantation slaves These ethnically mixed and economically diversified societies constituted a region of overlapping Iberian and African worlds while they made possible Spain's colonization of the Caribbean Golden Age of the Moor Ivan Van Sertima, 1992 This work examines the debt owed by Europe to the Moors for the Renaissance and the significant role played by the African in the Muslim invasions of the Iberian peninsula While it focuses mainly on Spain and Portugal it also examines the races and roots of the original North African before the later ethnic mix of the blackmoors and tawny Moors in the medieval period The study ranges from the Moor in the literature of Cervantes and Shakespeare to his profound influence upon Europe's university system and the diffusion via this system of the ancient and medieval sciences The Moors are shown to affect not only European mathematics and map making agriculture and architecture but their markets their music and their machines The ethnicity of the Moor is re-examined as is his unique contribution both as creator and conduit to the first seminal phase of the industrial revolution How Europe Underdeveloped Africa Walter Rodney, 2018-11-27 The classic work of political economic and historical analysis powerfully introduced by Angela Davis In his short life the Guyanese intellectual Walter Rodney emerged as one of the leading thinkers and activists of the anticolonial revolution leading movements in North America South America the African continent and the Caribbean In each locale Rodney found himself a lightning rod for working class Black Power His deportation catalyzed 20th century Jamaica's most significant rebellion the 1968 Rodney riots and his scholarship trained a generation how to think politics at an international scale In 1980 shortly after founding of the Working People's Alliance in Guyana the 38 year old Rodney would be assassinated In his magnum opus How Europe Underdeveloped Africa Rodney incisively argues that grasping the great divergence between the west and the rest can only be explained as the exploitation of the latter by the former This meticulously researched analysis of the abiding repercussions of European colonialism on the continent of Africa has not only informed decades of scholarship and activism it remains an indispensable study for grasping global inequality today 1493 Charles C. administration of capital during one's lifetime toward the cause of reducing the stratification between the rich and poor. Though written more than a century ago, Carnegie's words still ring true today, urging a better, more equitable world through greater social consciousness. *WORLD REGIONAL GEOGRAPHY. Women of the Renaissance Margaret L. King, 2008-04-10 In this informative and lively volume, Margaret L. King synthesizes a large body of literature on the condition of western European women in the Renaissance centuries (1350-1650), crafting a much-needed and unified overview of women's experience in Renaissance society. Utilizing the perspectives of social, church, and intellectual history, King looks at women of all classes in both usual and unusual settings. She first describes the familial roles filled by most women of the day as mothers, daughters, wives, widows, and workers. She turns then to that significant fraction of women in and acted upon by the church: nuns, uncloistered holy women, saints, heretics, reformers, and witches, devoting special attention to the social and economic independence monastic life afforded them. The lives of exceptional women—those warriors, queens, patronesses, scholars, and visionaries who found some other place in society for their energies and strivings—are explored with consideration given to the works and writings of those first protesting female subordination: the French Christine de Pizan, the Italian Modesta da Pozzo, the English Mary Astell. Of interest to students of European history and women's studies, King's volume will also appeal to general readers seeking an informative, engaging entrance into the Renaissance period. 5 Steps to a 5 AP World History, 2012-2013 Edition Peggy J. The Other Slavery Andrés Reséndez, 2016-04-12 NATIONAL BOOK AWARD FINALIST WINNER OF THE BANCROFT PRIZE A landmark history the sweeping story of the enslavement of tens of thousands of Indians across America from the time of the conquistadors up to the early twentieth century Since the time of Columbus Indian slavery was illegal in much of the American continent Yet as Andrés Reséndez illuminates in his myth shattering The Other Slavery it was practiced for centuries as an open secret There was no abolitionist movement to protect the tens of thousands of Natives who were kidnapped and enslaved by the conquistadors Reséndez builds the incisive case that it was mass slavery more than epidemics that decimated Indian populations across North America Through riveting new evidence including testimonies of courageous priests rapacious merchants and Indian captives The Other Slavery reveals nothing less than a key missing piece of American history For over two centuries we have fought over abolished and tried to come to grips with African American slavery It is time for the West to confront an entirely separate equally devastating enslavement we have long failed truly to see The Other Slavery is nothing short of an epic recalibration of American history one that's long overdue In addition to his skills as a historian and an investigator Reséndez is a skilled storyteller with a truly remarkable subject This is historical nonfiction at its most important and most necessary Literary Hub 20 Best Works of Nonfiction of the Decade One of the most profound contributions to North American history Los Angeles Times
