talks about his father's military service With One Fool Left in the World, No One Is Stranded Frances Garrett Connell,2014-01-21 This book charts the life of two young American teachers immersed in an Afghan village and later in Kabul from 1973-1976 before the onset of decades of conflict. In this turn back to the memories coded and buried in those years and in the flashes to more recent events and reflections, the book portrays stories, scenes, people, and realities long lost. In the minute particulars and in the large political and cultural strokes which made up that complex country of hospitable people who shaped the writer's life in unpredictable ways, one finds the seeds which grew to shape a country, a region, an endless war, and which now impact a new millennium.

Branding Humanity Amal Hassan Fadlalla,2018-11-20 The Save Darfur movement gained an international following, garnering widespread international attention to this remote Sudanese territory. Celebrities and other notable public figures participated in human rights campaigns to combat violence in the region. But how do local activists and those throughout the Sudanese diaspora in the United States situate their own notions of rights, nationalism, and identity? Based on interviews with Sudanese social actors, activists, and their allies in the United States, the Sudan, and online, Branding Humanity traces the global story of violence and the remaking of Sudanese identities. Amal Hassan Fadlalla examines how activists contest, reshape, and reclaim the stories of violence emerging from the Sudan and their identities as migrants. Fadlalla charts the clash and friction of the master narratives and counter narratives circulated and mobilized by competing social and political actors negotiating social exclusion and inclusion through their own identity politics and predicament of exile. In exploring the varied and individual experiences of Sudanese activists and allies, Branding Humanity helps us see beyond the oft-monolithic international branding of conflict. Fadlalla asks readers to consider how national and transnational debates about violence circulate, shape, and re-territorialize ethnic identities, disrupt meanings of national belonging, and rearticulate notions of solidarity and global affiliations.

New Books on Women, Gender and Feminism, 2014 New Books on Women and Feminism, 2014 The Power of Education Colin Power,2014-10-23 This book is about the power of education, the kind of education that simultaneously improves the quality of life both of individuals and the wider society. It explains why education must be viewed as a basic human right, as a value in and of itself, and reviews the evidence on how education builds the human resources that individuals and nations need to be productive, to continue to learn, to solve problems, to be creative, and to live together and with nature in peace and harmony. When nations ensure that such an education is accessible to all throughout their lives, education becomes the engine of sustainable development, economic, social, moral, and cultural. The book is unique in that it covers the development of education at all levels in all countries of the Asia-Pacific region and beyond, using the latest international data bases while blending in analyses of both quantitative and qualitative research.

The Asian Renaissance Ibrahim Anwar, Anwar Ibrahim,2010-11-01 Leaving Microsoft to Change the World John Wood, Chris Rice,2011 The Fragmentation of Afghanistan Barnett R. Rubin,2002-01-01 This monumental book examines Afghan society in conflict from the 1978 communist coup to the fall of Najibullah the last Soviet installed president in 1992 This edition newly revised by the author reflects developments since then and includes material on the Taliban and Osama bin Laden It is a book that now seems remarkably prescient Drawing on two decades of research Barnett R Rubin a leading expert on Afghanistan provides a fascinating account of the nature of the old regime the rise and fall of the People s Democratic Party of Afghanistan and the troubled Mujahidin resistance He relates all these phenomena to international actors showing how the interaction of U S policy and Pakistani and Saudi Arabian interests has helped to create the challenges of today Rubin puts into context the continuing turmoil in Afghanistan and offers readers a coherent historical explanation for the country s social and political fragmentation Praise for the earlier edition This study is theoretically informed empirically grounded and gracefully written Anyone who wants to understand Afghanistan s troubled history and the reasons for its present distress should read this book Foreign Affairs This is the book on Afghanistan for the educated public Political Science Quarterly

Education, Conflict and Social Cohesion International Bureau of Education,2004 This publication contains a number of papers which explore educational issues in societies emerging from violent conflict situations including Bosnia Guatemala Lebanon Northern Ireland and Rwanda The papers examine the role of education in contributing to reconciliation and peacebuilding and the challenges in curriculum policy including the determination of language policies in multilingual and multicultural societies the teaching of national history and the development of a sense of common citizenship and shared identity

The Spark Kristine Barnett,2013-04-09 Kristine Barnett s son Jacob has an IQ higher than Einstein s a photographic memory and he taught himself calculus in two weeks At nine he started working on an original theory in astrophysics that experts believe may someday put him in line for a Nobel Prize and at age twelve he became a paid researcher in quantum physics But the story of Kristine s journey with Jake is all the more remarkable because his extraordinary mind was almost lost to autism At age two when Jake was diagnosed Kristine was told he might never be able to tie his own shoes The Spark is a remarkable memoir of mother and son Surrounded by experts at home and in special ed who tried to focus on Jake s most basic skills and curtail his distracting interests moving shadows on the wall stars plaid patterns on sofa fabric Jake made no progress withdrew more and more into his own world and eventually stopped talking completely Kristine knew in her heart that she had to make a change Against the advice of her husband Michael and the developmental specialists Kristine followed her instincts pulled Jake out of special ed and began preparing him for mainstream kindergarten on her own Relying on the insights she developed at the daycare center she runs out of the garage in her home Kristine resolved to follow Jacob s spark his passionate interests Why concentrate on what he couldn t do Why not focus on what he could This basic philosophy along with her belief in the power of ordinary childhood experiences softball picnics s mores around the campfire and the importance of play helped Kristine overcome huge odds The Barnetts were not wealthy people and in addition to financial hardship Kristine herself faced serious health issues But through hard work and determination on behalf of Jake and his two younger brothers as well as an undying faith in their community friends and family Kristine and Michael prevailed The results were beyond anything anyone could have imagined Dramatic inspiring and transformative The Spark is about the power of love and courage in the face of overwhelming obstacles and the dazzling possibilities that can occur when we learn how to tap the true potential that lies within every child and in all of us Praise for The Spark An amazing memoir compulsive reading The Washington Post The Spark is about the transformative power of unconditional love If you have a child who is different and who doesn't you won't be able to put it down Sylvia Nasar author of A Beautiful Mind Love illness faith tragedy and triumph it's all here Jake Barnett's story contains wisdom for every parent Newsday This eloquent memoir about an extraordinary boy and a resilient and remarkable mother will be of interest to every parent and or educator hoping to nurture a child's authentic spark Publishers Weekly Compelling Jake is unusual but so is his superhuman mom Booklist The Spark describes in glowing terms the profound intensity with which a mother can love her child Andrew Solomon author of The Noonday Demon and Far from the Tree Every parent and teacher should read this fabulous book Temple Grandin author of Thinking in Pictures and co author of The Autistic Brain Risked Margaret Peterson Haddix,2014-09-02 Jonah thirteen and Katherine eleven travel through time to 1918 Russia just as Alexei Anastasia and the rest of Tsar Nicholas II's family is about to be executed Author's note includes facts about the Romanovs and the mystery surrounding their deaths Little Princes Conor Grennan,2011 Describes how the author's three month service as a volunteer at the Little Princes Orphanage in war torn Nepal became a commitment for advocacy and reform when he discovered that many of his young charges were victims rescued from human traffickers Born Under a Million Shadows Andrea Busfield,2010-02-02 A moving tale of the triumph of the human spirit amidst heartbreaking tragedy told through the eyes of a charming impish and wickedly observant Afghan boy The Taliban have withdrawn from Kabul's streets but the long shadows of their regime remain In his short life eleven year old Fawad has known more grief than most his father and brother have been killed his sister has been abducted and Fawad and his mother Mariya must rely on the charity of parsimonious relatives to eke out a hand to mouth existence Ever the optimist Fawad hopes for a better life and his dream is realized when Mariya finds a position as a housekeeper for a charismatic Western woman Georgie and her two foreign friends The world of aid workers and journalists is a new one for Fawad and living with the trio offers endless curiosities including Georgie's destructive relationship with the powerful Afghan warlord Haji Khan whose exploits are legendary Fawad grows resentful and worried until he comes to learn that love can move a man to act in surprisingly good ways But life especially in Kabul is never without peril and the next calamity Fawad must face is so devastating that it threatens to destroy the one thing he thought he could never lose his love for his country A big hearted novel infused with crackling wit Andrea Busfield's brilliant debut captures the hope and humanity of the Afghan people and the foreigners who live among them The Nazi Hunters Damien Lewis,2018-11-20 The gripping untold story of the Secret Hunters deep cover British special forces who pursued Nazi fugitives from justice after
