Explain two consequences of the Bay of Pigs invasion 1961 (8 marks)

One consequence of the Bay of Pigs invasion of 17th April 1961 was that President Kennedy and the USA were humiliated by the comprehensive defeat at the Bay of Pigs. Kennedy, the new and inexperienced American President had expected that the Cuban people would rise up and support the 1500 Cuban exiles who invaded, however, Castro's whole 20'000 strong army fought back, fearing a full-scale invasion. The mission had failed within 72 hours with all exiles either captured or killed. This made America, Kennedy and capitalism seem weak and it was a huge propaganda victory for the Cubans and their Communist ally, the USSR.

A second consequence of the invasion was that Castro and Cuba became closer to the USA. Immediately after the invasion Castro felt confident to declare that the revolution was Communist. Khrushchev then sought to protect the Cubans from further invasion by placing military advisors and combat stations in Cuba. Later in 1961 the USSR placed ICBM missiles in Cuba (only 145 KM from the US mainland) to act as a deterrent to the USA for future invasion.

Explain two consequences of events in Czechoslovakia in 1968. (8 marks)

One consequence of the events in Czechoslovakia in 1968 was that it gave rise to the Brezhnev Doctrine which redefined communism as a one-party state when all member countries had to remain a part of the Warsaw Pact.

Another consequence was that the events sent out a message to the members of the Warsaw Pact that the Soviet Union would suppress any attempt to relax communist control. Therefore, Warsaw Pact countries felt threatened by the rising communism, worried it would lead to an uprising.

Explain two consequences of the Berlin Crisis of 1948-1949 (8 marks)

One consequence of the Berlin Crisis of 1948-1949 was that it greatly increased the East-West rivalry. This was because Truman saw the crisis as a great victory. The Berlin Airlift had been very effective in ensuring that supplies reached West Berlin. This reached its peak on the 16th-17th of April 1949 when 1398 flights landed nearly 13,000 tonnes of supplies in 24 hours. West Berlin had survived and stood up to the Soviet Union. However, for Stalin it was a defeat and humiliation as he had not been able to prevent the airlift from supplying West Berlin and had been forced to back down and reopen road and rail routes.

Another consequence of the Berlin Crisis of 1948-1949 was the creation, in 1949, of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation. This was because the Berlin Crisis had confirmed Truman's commitment to Western Europe and convinced him that Western European states, even joins together, were no match for the Soviet Union and needed the formal support of the USA. NATO was signed by the USA, Canada, Britain and nine other countries of Western Europe and, although a defensive alliance, its main purpose was to prevent Soviet expansion.

Explain two consequences of the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan (8 marks)

One consequence of the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan was the Carter Doctrine. President Carter was furious with the invasion and introduced this doctrine which stated that the USA would use its military force if necessary to defend its national interests in the Persian Gulf region. It also promised US military aid to all the countries bordering Afghanistan. In subsequent years, the USA gave military support to the mujahedeen, Afghan rebels who fought against Soviet occupation.

Another consequence of the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan was to end the period of détente between the superpowers. One feature of détente was the SALT talks. SALT 2 talks had begun in 1974 but, in 1980, the US Senate refused to ratify this agreement. Détente gave way to increased rivalry between the USA and the Soviet Union and the beginning of the Second Cold War. In retaliation to the Soviet invasion, the USA boycotted the Moscow Olympics of 1980.
