Left Beyond the Horizon Christopher Many,2015 200 000 kilometres in 3 000 days across five continents Or in other words just 66 kilometres a day on average which is quite enough for a 30 year old Land Rover Amidst the Scottish Highlands battered by the elements stands a neglected Land Rover It does not seem to be the ideal vehicle for a trip around the world but Christopher Many believes otherwise He has the dream of embarking on a tour de force to the frozen wastelands of Siberia North and South America and across the continent of Africa equipped with little more than a passport credit card and full tank of petrol His goal To explore strange new worlds and boldly go where no Land Rover has gone before Intelligently and with perseverance Christopher scours the globe from Mongolia to Somaliland to find out what makes the earth tick Soon enough the adventure turns into a sprawling n dimensional tapestry of philosophical conundrums rollercoaster emotions and first hand observations in 100 countries When he pulls on a few loose threads a Pandora s box of information is released often at odds with conventional Western views Christopher returns eight years later exhausted snake bitten and malaria infected but with a few prized cogwheels in his knapsack a greater understanding of the world we live in and with the love of his life Equal parts sophisticated lexicon on global affairs and darkly witty travel chronicle his book presents a vivid picture
