Adaptations Stephanie Harrison, 2011-08-10 An Eclectic Collection of Fiction That Inspired Film Memento All About Eve Rear Window Rashomon and 2001 A Space Odyssey are all well known and much loved movies but what is perhaps a lesser known fact is that all of them began their lives as short stories Adaptations gathers together 35 pieces that have been the basis for films many from giants of American literature Hemingway Fitzgerald and many that have not been in print for decades the stories that inspired Bringing Up Baby Meet John Doe and All About Eve Categorized by genre and featuring movies by master directors such as Steven Spielberg Stanley Kubrick Robert Altman Frank Capra and John Ford as well as relative newcomers such as Chris Eyre and Christopher Nolan Adaptations offers insight into the process of turning a short story into a screenplay one that when successful doesn't take drastic liberties with the text upon which it is based but doesn't mirror its source material too closely either The stories and movies featured in Adaptations include Philip K Dick's The Minority Report which became the 2002 blockbuster directed by Steven Spielberg and starring Tom Cruise The Harvey Pekar Name Story by reclusive graphic artist Harvey Pekar whose life was the inspiration for American Splendor winner of the 2003 Sundance Grand Jury Prize Hagar Wilde's Bringing Up Baby the basis of the classic film Bringing Up Baby anthologized here for the first time ever The Swimmer by John Cheever an example of a highly regarded story that many feared might prove unadaptable The predecessor to the beloved holiday classic A Christmas Story Red Ryder Nails the Hammond Kid by Jean Shepherd Whether you're a fiction reader or a film buff Adaptations is your behind the scenes look at the sometimes difficult sometimes brilliantly successful process from the printed page to the big screen From the Trade Paperback edition

character driven storytelling harness methods of screenplay format dialogue plot structure and character development that will allow your stories to reach their fullest potential Film Adaptation and Its Discontents Thomas Leitch,2007-06-15

Most books on film adaptation the relation between films and their literary sources focus on a series of close one to one comparisons between specific films and canonical novels This volume identifies and investigates a far wider array of problems posed by the process of adaptation Beginning with an examination of why adaptation study has so often supported the institution of literature rather than fostering the practice of literacy Thomas Leitch considers how the creators of short silent films attempted to give them the weight of literature what sorts of fidelity are possible in an adaptation of sacred scripture what it means for an adaptation to pose as an introduction to rather than a transcription of a literary classic and why and how some films have sought impossibly close fidelity to their sources After examining the surprisingly divergent fidelity claims made by three different kinds of canonical adaptations Leitch s analysis moves beyond literary sources to consider why a small number of adapters have risen to the status of auteurs and how illustrated books comic strips video games and true stories have been adapted to the screen The range of films studied from silent Shakespeare to Sherlock Holmes to The Lord of the Rings is as broad as the problems that come under review Screening Text Shannon

Wells-Lassagne,Ariane Hudelet,2013-02-07 Rather than limiting the cinema as certain French New Wave critics feared adaptation has encouraged new inspiration to explore the possibilities of the intersection of text and film This collection of essays covers various aspects of adaptation studies questions of genre and myth race and gender readaptation and pedagogical and practical approaches Fear, Cultural Anxiety, and Transformation Scott A. Lukas,John Marmysz,2010 The contributors to this volume explore the themes of fear cultural anxiety and transformation as expressed in remade horror science fiction and fantasy films While opening on a note that emphasizes the compulsion of filmmakers to revisit issues concerning fear and anxiety this collection ends with a suggestion that repeated confrontation with these issues allows the opportunity for creative and positive transformation Adaptation for Screenwriters Robert Edgar,John

Décio Torres Cruz,2019-12-05 Décio Torres Cruz approaches connections between literature and cinema partly through issues of gender and identity and partly through issues of reality and representation In doing so he looks at the various ways in which people have thought of the so called cinematic novel tracing the development of that genre concept not only in the French cinematic and film scenarios but also in novels from the United States England France and Latin America The main tendency he identifies is the blending of the cinematic novel with pop literature through allusions to Pop Art and other postmodern cultural trends His prime exhibits are a number of novels by the Argentinian writer Manuel Puig Betrayed by Rita Hayworth Heartbreak Tango The Buenos Aires Affair Kiss of the Spider Woman and Pubis angelical Bringing in suggestive sociocultural and psychoanalytical considerations Cruz shows how in Puig's hands the cinematic novel resulted in a pop collage of different texts films discourses and narrative devices which fused reality and imagination into dream and desire Companion to Literature

Adaptation, Awards Culture, and the Value of Prestige Colleen Kennedy-Karpat, Eric Sandberg, 2017-09-07 This book explores the intersection between adaptation studies and what James F. English has called the economy of prestige which includes formal prize culture as well as less tangible expressions such as canon formation fandom authorship and performance The chapters explore how prestige can affect many facets of the adaptation process including selection approach and reception The first section of this volume deals directly with cycles of influence involving prizes such as the Pulitzer the Man Booker and other major awards The second section focuses on the juncture where adaptation the canon and awards culture meet while the third considers alternative modes of locating and expressing prestige through adapted and adaptive intertexts This book will be of interest to students and scholars of adaptation cultural sociology film and literature
