Three holidays Three stories to make that time of year a lot more fun This collection of three stories about three beloved winter celebrations is Red Dress Ink's first holiday title From the Campaign Trail or Thereabouts Michael Bleicher, Andy Newton, 2019-09-06 From the Campaign Trail or Thereabouts is the story of two insulated Upper West Side journalists Harold Carlyle a self-serving incompetent reporter desperate to save both his career and marriage and his wife Pattie an observant sharp-tongued and successful television critic When Harold is assigned to cover the 2016 Presidential Election he devises a scheme to save his marriage by taking Pattie with him across the country From the Campaign Trail or Thereabouts dives into the contradictory divided and all too often unsettling state of the union Like Huck Finn meets Game Change the novel examines the politicians and popular figures who played starring roles in 2016 and holds up a mirror to the electorate that ultimately made Trumpism possible The Voice in My Head Dana L. Davis, 2019-05-28 She can feel sorry for herself Or she can listen to the voice in her head For Indigo Phillips life has always been about basking in the shadow of her identical twin Violet the perfectly dressed gentle popular sister The only problem the girls had in their lives was the occasional chaos that came with being part of the Phillips family brood But when Violet becomes terminally ill and plans to die on her own terms via medically assisted death Indigo spirals into desperation in her efforts to cope That's when she begins to hear a mysterious voice a voice claiming to be God The Voice insists that if she takes Violet to a remote rock formation in the Arizona desert her sister will live Incredibly Violet agrees to go if their dysfunctional family tags along for the ride With all nine members stuffed into a wonky old paratransit bus including their controlling older sister and distant mother Indigo must find a way to face insecurities she's spent a lifetime masking and step up to lead the trip As she deals with outrageous mishaps strange lodgings and even stranger folks along the way Indigo will figure out how to come to terms with her sister her family and the voice in her head Things I Can't Explain Mitchell Kriegman, 2015-11-10 A complete re-imagining of the 1990s television hit Clarissa Explains it All as 20-something Clarissa tries to navigate the unemployment line mompreneurs and the collision of two people in love She was a smart snappy light-hearted girl who knew it all at fourteen and let television audiences everywhere know it Now a woman in her late twenties her searching blue eyes are more serious but mostly amused by the people around her The gap-toothed smile that made her seem younger than she really was is gone but she still lightens up the room Her unpredictable wardrobe rocks just like when she was a kid but her fashion sense has evolved and it makes men and women turn their heads After leaving high school early Clarissa interned at the Daily Post while attending night school At the ripe old age of twenty-two she had it made her own journalism beat fashion gender politics and crime an affordable apartment in FiDi and a livable wage She was so totally ahead of the game Ah those were the days All three of them Remember the Stock Market Crash of 08 Remember when people actually bought newspapers All of Clarissa's charming obsessions charts graphs and superstitions have survived into adulthood but they've evolved into an ever-greater need to claw the world back under control Her mid-twenties crisis has left her with a whole set of things she can't explain an ex

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
