

Guide to Formal Essay Writing

This guide to essay writing has been created by teachers of Fredericton High School to help you research, write, reference, and format your essay. Each section contains a list of helpful links that will assist you with essay writing. These links have been tried and approved by FHS teachers.

At the end of this guide are three links to sample essays, formatted to match the three styles of writing that are used at FHS.

I. BEGINNING YOUR PAPER - Topic Selection and Research

- (a) Topic Selection: Your topic should be something you are interested in within the confines of the course you are taking and at the instructor's discretion.
- (b) Research: Read as much as you can about your topic. Find as many academic sources about your topic as possible. Books are best; however, academic websites work, too (these are primarily .edu sites).
- (c) Once you understand your topic, create a "why" or "how" question that will generate discussion or argument.
- (d) Thesis Statement: Formulate a thesis statement that begins to answer the question you have about your topic. This should include an argument and several reasons to help prove your argument.
- (e) Format: Establish the format for your paper. This may be dependent upon the class or discipline for which you are writing your paper. Common formats include APA style, Chicago-manual style, or MLA style.

Recitatif Toni Morrison,2022-02-01 A beautiful arresting short story by Toni Morrison the only one she ever wrote about race and the relationships that shape us through life with an introduction by Zadie Smith Twyla and Roberta have known each other since they were eight years old and spent four months together as roommates in the St Bonaventure shelter Inseparable at the time they lose touch as they grow older only to find each other later at a diner then at a grocery store and again at a protest Seemingly at opposite ends of every problem and in disagreement each time they meet the two women still cannot deny the deep bond their shared experience has forged between them Written in 1980 and anthologized in a number of collections this is the first time Recitatif is being published as a stand alone hardcover In the story Twyla's and Roberta's races remain ambiguous We know that one is white and one is black but which is which And who is right about the race of the woman the girls tormented at the orphanage Morrison herself described this story as an experiment in the removal of all racial codes from a narrative about two characters of different races for whom racial identity is crucial Recitatif is a remarkable look into what keeps us together and what keeps us apart and about how perceptions are made tangible by reality
