First Time in NYC

The Johnson family always traveled to the beach during the summers. This summer, they decided to travel to a big city called New York City. Mom told Dad that they would really need a map, but Dad said they would be able to find their way around without one. After walking around the busy streets for two hours, Dad finally declared that they were lost. Mom rolled her eyes and said, "I told you so!" She ran into one of the stores and came out with a city map. After looking at it for about two minutes, Mom decided she knew where to go.

A Remedial

Method for Problem Solving in Third Grade Arithmetic Mary Ethel Brown, 1925 Home of the Brave Katherine Applegate, 2014-12-23 Bestselling author Katherine Applegate presents Home of the Brave a beautifully wrought middle grade novel about an immigrant's journey from hardship to hope. Kek comes from Africa. In America he sees snow for the first time and feels its sting. He's never walked on ice and he falls. He wonders if the people in this new place will be like the winter cold and unkind. In Africa Kek lived with his mother, father, and brother. But only he and his mother have survived and now she's missing. Kek is on his own. Slowly he makes friends: a girl who is in foster care, an old woman who owns a rundown farm, and a cow whose name means family in Kek's native language. As Kek awaits word of his mother's fate, he weathers the tough Minnesota winter by finding warmth in his new friendships, strength in his memories, and belief in his new country. Home of the Brave is a 2008 Bank Street Best Children's Book of the Year.
