Death in the Long Grass Peter Hathaway Capstick, 1978-01-15 As thrilling as any novel as taut and exciting as any adventure story Peter Hathaway Capstick's Death in the Long Grass takes us deep into the heart of darkness to view Africa through the eyes of one of the most renowned professional hunters Few men can say they have known Africa as Capstick has known it leading safaris through lion country tracking man eating leopards along tangled jungle paths running for cover as fear maddened elephants stampede in all directions And of the few who have known this dangerous way of life fewer still can recount their adventures with the flair of this former professional hunter turned writer Based on Capstick's own experiences and the personal accounts of his colleagues Death in the Long Grass portrays the great killers of the African bush not only the lion leopard and elephant but the primitive rhino and the crocodile waiting for its unsuspecting prey the titanic hippo and the Cape buffalo charging like an express train out of control Capstick was a born raconteur whose colorful descriptions and eye for exciting authentic detail bring us face to face with some of the most ferocious killers in the world underrated killers like the surprisingly brave and cunning hyena silent killers such as the lightning fast black mamba snake collective killers like the wild dog Readers can lean back in a chair sip a tall iced drink and revel in the kinds of hunting stories Hemingway and Ruark used to hear in hotel bars from Nairobi to Johannesburg as veteran hunters would tell of what they heard beyond the campfire and saw through the sights of an express rifle

The Last Ivory Hunter Peter Hathaway Capstick, 1988-07-15 A chance meeting around a safari campfire on the banks of the Mupamadazi River leads to The Last Ivory Hunter The Saga of Wally Johnson a grand tale of African adventure by renowned hunting author Peter Hathaway Capstick Wally Johnson spent half a century in Mozambique hunting white gold ivory Most men died at this hazardous trade He's the last one able to tell his story In hours of conversations by mopane fired in the African bush Wally described his career how he survived the massive bite of a Gaboon viper buffalo gorings floods disease and most dangerous of all gold fever He bluffed down 200 armed poachers almost single handedly and survived rocket attacks from communist revolutionaries during Mozambique's plunge into chaos in 1975 In Botswana at age 63 Wally continued his career Though the great tuskers have largely gone and most of Wally's colleagues are dead Wally has survived His words are rugged testimony to an Africa that is now a distant dream Death in the Silent Places Peter Hathaway

Capstick,1989-04-15 From the master of adventure behind the classic Death in the Long Grass former big game hunter Peter Hathaway Capstick now turns from his own exploits to those of some of the greatest hunters of the past with Death in the Silent Places With his characteristic color and flair Capstick recalls the extraordinary careers of men like Colonel J H Patterson and Colonel Jim Corbett who stalked legendary man eaters through the silent darkness on opposite sides of the world men like Karamojo Bell acknowledged as the greatest elephant hunter of all time men like the valiant Sasha Siemel who tracked killer jaguars through the Matto Grosso armed only with a spear With an authenticity gained by having shared the experiences he writes of Capstick eloquently recreates the acrid taste of terror in the mouth of a man whose gun has jammed as a lion begins his charge the exhilaration of tracking and finding a long sought prey the bravery and even nobility of performing under circumstances of primitive and savage stress with death all around in the silent places of the wilderness

White Hunters Brian Herne,2014-04-08 Brian Herne s White Hunters The Golden Age of African Safaris is the story of seventy years of African adventure danger and romance East Africa affects our imagination like few other places the sight of a charging rhino goes directly to the heart the limitless landscape of bony highlands desert and mountain is as Isak Dinesen wrote of unequalled nobility White Hunters re creates the legendary big game safaris led by Selous and Bell and the daring ventures of early hunters into unexplored territories and brings to life such romantic figures as Cape to Cairo Grogan who walked 4 000 miles for the love of a woman and Dinesen s dashing lover Denys Finch Witnesses to the richest wildlife spectacle on the earth these hunters were the first conservationists Hard drinking infatuated with risk and careless in love they inspired Hemingway s stories and movies with Clark Gable and Gregory Peck Warrior Peter Hathaway Capstick,1998-01-15 Peter Hathaway Capstick died in 1996 At the time of his death the world renowned adventure writer was putting the finishing touches on this a stirring and vivid biography of Colonel Richard Meinertzhagen a man with whom he felt he had much in common Edited and prepared for publication by his widow Fiona Capstick Warrior is Capstick s riveting farewell to his fans and the final addition to the bestselling Peter Capstick Library Colonel Richard Meinertzhagen was one of those rare men whom fate always seems to cast in the dramas that shape history As a young officer he served in India and Africa during the glory days of the British Empire defending the crown s dominions and exploring its darkest reaches His exploits in the bloody colonial wars of turn of the century East Africa earned him a reputation as one of the most fierce and ruthless soldiers in the Empire yet it was during those years spent roaming the silent places of the Serengeti hunting its game and learning its secrets that Meinertzhagen developed a fascination with Africa that would last a lifetime But there were other adventures to come and Capstick narrates them all with his trademark skill and wit daring commando raids against German forces in Africa and the Mideast during World War I covert missions to the USSR and Nazi Germany between the wars work as an OSS agent during World War II and Meinertzhagen's ceaseless support of Israeli nationhood are all woven together into an epic adventure. Warrior The Legend of Colonel Richard Meinertzhagen is a powerful chronicle that follows the tracks of a twentieth century icon. In the Grip of the Nyika John Henry Patterson, 1909. In the Grip of the Nyika Further Adventures in British East Africa by John Henry Patterson first published in 1909 is a rare manuscript the original residing in one of the great libraries of the world. Veteran adventurer Capstick explores the wide world of maneaters creatures who regard Homo Sapiens as just another meal ticket. The Wilderness Hunter Theodore Roosevelt, 1893. The Swamp of Death Rebecca Gowers, 2004. Just over one hundred years ago three young men all under 25 set out from England for the Canadian backwoods but within days of arriving one was dead and another arrested for murder. The details of the case and the corrupt trial that followed captured public attention to a quite incredible extent. The age of mass media was dawning and newspapers with the submarine telegraph at their disposal turned the story into an international cause celebre. But while everyone had their say some essential questions remained unanswered: who actually killed Frederick Benwell and was murder part of the original plan. Death in the Long Grass Peter Hathaway Capstick, 1978. Maneaters and Marauders John Taylor, 2009-11-09. A thrilling chronicle of the author's death-defying pursuits of Africa's most dangerous beasts of a time over forty years ago. Taylor describes his adventures when hunting down man eaters and marauders whether they be lions, crocodiles or elephants. It is the accumulation of all the dangerous adventures Taylor met with during his thirty-five years as an ivory hunter. During that time while living in Nyasaland and Mozambique Taylor quite often received an SOS from the natives to dispatch a man-eating cat or a rogue pachyderm. In one instance Taylor dispatched in the time span of a few weeks a pride of eleven lions that had terrorised an entire district. Some of these man-eating lions were so frightful that the natives gave them specific names such as the Benga Man Eaters, the Maiembi Man eaters and the Nsungu Man eaters. As Taylor himself noted: "Those who have not lived among the natives of East and Southern Africa can have no conception of how numerous man-eating lions are in some areas. As if the man-eating cats were not bad enough there are also stories of bad actor buffaloes and elephants that raided native crops or trampled a hapless individual or two." John Taylor was a born raconteur and the colourful descriptions of his hunts of a time long gone will bring you face to face with some of the most ferocious killers of the African bush. African Rifles and Cartridges John Taylor, 2014-07-07. 2014 Reprint of 1948 Edition. Full facsimile of the original edition not reproduced with Optical Recognition Software. John Howard Pondoro. Taylor 1904-1969 was a big game hunter of Irish descent. In Africa he experimented extensively using different types of rifles and calibers which made him an expert in big game rifles He is credited with developing the Taylor KO Factor and wrote several now classic books As a professional ivory hunter with some thirty years of continuous living in the African bush John Taylor used and tested all the various calibers of British American and German rifles and with them killed many species of big game found on the continent of Africa Taylor s discussion on the practical application of ballistics includes doubles magazines and single shots the practical value of steel jacketed bullets versus those covered with cupronickel the faults of copper tubed bullets the actual effects of softpoint bullets with varying degrees of lead exposure the necessity of modern bullets that will really stand up to the requirements when fired into heavy animals and many other valuable tips and explanations about cartridges and rifles Remains a classic work
