The Instructional Leader's Guide to Implementing K-8 Science Practices Sep 14 2022 An accessible, engaging primer on the eight science practices at the heart of the Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS), providing K–8 instructional leaders with the grounding they need to ensure excellent science instruction in every classroom. The NGSS reconceptualize science instruction by redefining the teacher as someone who helps students construct their own knowledge by "thinking like scientists" and engaging in discrete science practices. However, with STEM teachers in short supply and generalists often feeling underprepared to teach elementary and middle school science, what can instructional leaders do to ensure students get a strong start in this critical area and learn to love science? Although a content-neutral approach to supervision—one that emphasizes general pedagogical features such as student engagement, cognitive load, or classroom management—is undoubtedly beneficial, the best instructional leaders know that content-specific approaches are necessary to achieve real excellence. We therefore need to go deeper if we want to engage both teachers and students with the science practices. We need science-specific supervision. With that in mind, the authors provide vignettes and examples of the science practices in use, advice on observing science classrooms, concrete look-fors, and guidance on fostering ongoing teacher learning. They also offer a rich compendium of research- and evidence-based resources, including sample lessons, FAQs, and more than a dozen downloadable tools to facilitate classroom observation, feedback sessions, and professional development. This is an essential guide for any K–8 instructional leader who wants to empower all teachers to provide all students with rich science experiences and develop the cognitive and noncognitive skills students will need to thrive in more advanced courses, work, and society.

Love In A Big World Apr 02 2024 What Is Love In A Big World? Developing social-emotional skills is a lifelong journey, and in today's education landscape, the foundation of social-emotional learning (SEL) is built in the classroom. Love In A Big World equips educators with the curriculum and resources necessary to empower students to be socially competent and emotionally healthy problem-solvers who maintain a sense of purpose and make a positive difference in the world. We define the structure, scope and sequence of 24 essential character traits to provide meaningful activities that will help you support your students' development into well-rounded and successful friends, family members, community members, and citizens. We have also designed our curriculum to be customizable so that teachers can identify and address their students' unique needs, align activities accordingly, and ensure that instruction is age and grade level appropriate. What Is the Teacher Guide? When adults demonstrate that they are truly interested in what kids have to say, students will open up more and share their thoughts and feelings. This 24-session Teacher Guide helps educators begin to integrate SEL competencies into their classroom activities. Designed for teachers in 8th grade, this manual provides guided conversations on each of the identified character traits. When paired with corresponding journals, this resource will help teachers provide a safe space for students to be exploring and developing their social-emotional skills.

Daily Paragraph Editing Grade 8 Oct 04 2021 Daily Paragraph Editing grade 8 provides 36 weeks of frequent, focused language practice to help your eighth graders learn the conventions of standard English grammar and usage. The concise daily activities are ideal "warm-up" exercises to begin your language arts block and are adaptable for small-group and whole-class instruction. How it works: students apply grade-level language skills to correct a paragraph on Monday through Thursday; when read together, the four paragraphs form a cohesive composition. A writing prompt on Friday relates to the week's four-paragraph composition and gives students the chance to apply the targeted language conventions.
