But when he laughs at a joke aimed at Tallulah the summer before their senior year, Tallulah's love dissipates, and she becomes determined to lose weight to no longer be an object of her classmates' and especially Nash's ridicule. Nash Lee has it all: he's the star running back of Lawton's football team, being scouted by division one colleges, and on track to have a carefree senior year. But when an accident leaves him with a permanent limp, all of Nash's present and future plans are destroyed, leaving him bitter, angry, and unrecognizable from the person he used to be. Facing a new school year with her new body, Tallulah is out to seek revenge on Nash's cruelty. All does not go according to plan, though, and Tallulah and Nash unexpectedly find themselves falling for each other. But with all the pain resting in each of their hearts, can their love survive?

There's just one thing, though: she's sleeping in bed with his new roommate, Cage York. Willow Low Foster needs a place to live. Running to her best friend, Cage's apartment every time her sister kicks her out, isn't exactly a long-term solution. But Cage has a new roommate, and suddenly sleeping over at his apartment isn't such a bad thing. Not when she gets to see those sexy green eyes of Marcus's twinkle when he smiles at her like he wants her there. There's one problem though: Cage is under the disillusion that when he's through sowing his wild oats, he's going to marry Low. An assumption Marcus intends to change. But when his carefully laid plans come crashing down with a revelation he never expected, Marcus will have to choose between Low or his family. Because once the truth comes out, there's no other choice.
