Gowers Review of Intellectual Property Andrew Gowers, Great Britain: H.M. Treasury, 2006-12-06 This report examines the importance of intellectual property IP ranging from patents copyright design and trade marks and whether in the age of globalization digitization and increasing economic specialization it still creates incentives for innovation without unduly limiting access to consumers and stifling further innovation The report does recommend a radical overhaul of the system with the review concentrating on three areas and setting out the following recommendations i strengthening enforcement of IP rights whether through clamping down on piracy or trade in counterfeit goods ii reducing costs of registering and litigating IP rights for businesses large and small iii improving the balance and flexibility of IP rights to allow individuals businesses and institutions to use content in ways consistent with the digital age
