Alcoholics Anonymous AA and Narcotics Anonymous NA have helped countless people on the path to recovery But many still feel that 12 step programs aren't for them that the spiritual emphasis is too narrow the modality too old school the setting too triggering or the space too exclusive Some struggle with an addict label that can eclipse the histories traumas and experiences that feed into addiction or dismisses the effects of adverse experiences like trauma in the first place Advances in addiction medicine trauma neuropsychiatry social theory and overall strides in inclusivity need to be integrated into modern day 12 step programs to reflect the latest research and what it means to live with an addiction today Dr Jamie Marich an addiction and trauma clinician in recovery herself builds necessary bridges between the 12 step's core foundations and up to date developments in trauma informed care Foregrounding the intersections of addiction trauma identity and systems of oppression Marich's approach treats the whole person not just the addiction to foster healing transformation and growth Written for clinicians therapists sponsors and those in recovery Marich provides an extensive toolkit of trauma informed skills that Explains how trauma impacts addiction recovery and relapse Celebrates communities who may feel excluded from the program like atheists agnostics and LGBTQ folks Welcomes outside help from the fields of trauma dissociation mindfulness and addiction research Explains the differences between being trauma informed and trauma sensitive and Discusses spiritual abuse as a legitimate form of trauma that can profoundly impede spirituality based approaches to healing
