Inc., 2012-09-18 Lakeland the historical African American community of College Park was formed around 1890 on the doorstep of the Maryland Agricultural College now the University of Maryland in northern Prince George s County Located less than 10 miles from Washington D C the community began when the area was largely rural and overwhelmingly populated by European Americans Lakeland is one of several small African American communities along the U S Route 1 corridor between Washington D C and Laurel Maryland With Lakeland s central geographic location and easy access to train and trolley transportation it became a natural gathering place for African American social and recreational activities and it thrived until its self contained uniqueness was undermined by the federal government s urban renewal program and by societal change The story of Lakeland is the tale of a community that was established and flourished in a segregated society and developed its own institutions and traditions including the area s only high school for African Americans built in 1928

Feet in the Clouds Richard Askwith, 2013-05-09 Nearly 10 years after its first publication Aurum are re-issuing this classic running book which has defined a genre It includes an introduction from bestselling author Robert Macfarlane and an epilogue from Richard Askwith The concept of fell running is simple it's a sport that involves running over mountains sometimes one sometimes many It's also immensely demanding While running uphill is a stamina sapping slog running pell mell down the other side requires the agility and even recklessness of a mountain goat And there's the weather to contend with It may make the sports pages only rarely but in areas like the Lake District and Snowdonia fell running is the basis of a whole culture indeed race organisers sometimes have to turn competitors away so that fragile mountain uplands are not irrevocably damaged by too many thundering feet Fixtures like the annual Ben Nevis and Snowdon races attract runners from all over Britain and beyond Others such as the Wasdale and Ennerdale fell runs in the Lakeland valleys gruelling

marathons of more than 20 miles remain truly local events for which the whole community turns out with many of the runners back on the same fells the next day tending sheep Now Richard Askwith explores the world of fell running in the only legitimate way by donning his Ron Hill vest and studded shoes to spend a season running as many of the great fell races as he can from Borrowdale to Ben Nevis an arduous schedule that tests the very limits of one's stamina and courage Over the months he also meets the greats of fell running like the remarkable Joss Naylor who to celebrate his fiftieth birthday ran all 214 major Lakeland fells in a single week Billy Bland the combative Borrowdale man whose astounding records still stand for many of the top races and Bill Teasdale a hero of the sport's earlier professional days whom he tracks down to his tiny cottage in the northern Lakes And ultimately Askwith's obsession drives him to attempt the ultimate challenge the Bob Graham Round a non stop circuit of 42 of the Lake District's highest peaks to be completed within 24 hours This is a portrait of one of the few sports to have remained utterly true to its roots in which the point is not fame or fortune but to run the ancient wild landscape and to be a hero if at all within one's own valley Feet in the Clouds is a chronicle of a masochistic but admirable sporting obsession an insight into one of the oldest extreme sports and a lyrical tribute to Britain's mountains and the men and women who live among them
