Greg Bear,2017-09-12 Collected in a single volume for the first time the epic War Dogs trilogy of interstellar war from a master of science fiction The Gurus made their presence on Earth known thirteen years ago Providing technology and scientific insights far beyond what mankind was capable of they became indispensable advisors and promised even more gifts that we just couldn't pass up. But they were followed by mortal enemies the Antagonists from sun to sun planet to planet and now the Gurus are stretched thin and they need humanity's help. Our first bill has come due. Skyrines like Michael Venn have been volunteered to pay the price. They face insidious enemies who were already inside the solar system establishing a beachhead on Mars. Venn and his comrades will be lucky to make it out alive let alone preserve the future of all of mankind.

The War Dogs Trilogy War Dogs Killing Titan Take Back the Sky Take Back the Sky Greg Bear, 2016-12-20 The conclusion to an epic interstellar trilogy of war from master of science fiction Greg Bear. Marooned beneath the icy waxy crust of Saturn's moon Titan Skyrine Michael Venn and his comrades face double danger from Earth and from the Antagonists both intent on wiping out their growing awareness of what the helpful alien Gurus are really doing in our solar system. Haunted by their dead and by the ancient archives of our Bug ancestors the former combatants must now team up with their enemies forget their indoctrination and their training and journey far beyond Pluto to the fabled Planet X the Antagonists home world a Sun Planet in the comet generating Kuiper belt. It's here that Master Sergeant Venn will finally understand his destiny and the destiny of every intelligent being in the solar system including the enigmatic Gurus. Eon Greg Bear, 1991-10-15 Science fiction roman The Forge of God Greg Bear, 2014-04-01 This doomsday masterpiece from the author of Eon and Hull Zero Three was a finalist for the Hugo and Nebula awards. On July 26 Arthur Gordon learns that Europa the sixth moon of Jupiter has disappeared. Not hiding not turned black but gone. On September 28th Edward Shaw finds an error in the geological records of Death Valley. A cinder cone was left off the map. Could it be new. Or stranger yet could it be artificial. The answer may be lying beside it a dying Guest who brings devastating news for Edward and for Planet Earth. As more unexplained phenomena spring up around the globe a granite mountain appearing in Australia sounds emanating from the earth's core flashes of light among the asteroids it becomes clear to some that the end is approaching and there is nothing we can do.

In The Forge of God award winning author Greg Bear describes the final days of the world on both a massive scientific scale and in the everyday emotional context of individual human lives. Facing the destruction of all they know some people turn to God others to their families and a few turn to saviors promising escape from a planet being torn apart. Will they make it in time. And who gets left behind to experience the last moments of beauty and chaos on earth. Nominated for the Nebula Hugo and Locus Awards The Forge of God is an engrossing read breathtaking in its scope and in its detail. Darwin's Children Greg Bear, 2003-03-04 Greg Bear's Nebula Award winning novel Darwin's Radio painted a chilling portrait of humankind on the threshold of a radical leap in evolution one that would alter our species forever. Now Bear continues his provocative tale of the human race confronted by an uncertain future where survival of the fittest takes on astonishing and controversial new dimensions. Eleven years have passed since SHEVA an ancient retrovirus was discovered in human DNA a retrovirus that caused mutations in the human genome and heralded the arrival of a new wave of genetically enhanced humans. Now these changed children have reached adolescence and face a world that is outraged about their very existence. For these special youths possessed of remarkable advanced traits that mark a major turning point in human development are also ticking time bombs harboring hosts of viruses that could exterminate the old human race. Fear and hatred of the virus children have made them a persecuted underclass quarantined by the government in special schools targeted by federally sanctioned bounty hunters and demonized by hysterical segments of the population. But pockets of resistance have sprung up among those opposed to treating the children like dangerous diseases and who fear the worst if the government's draconian measures are carried to their extreme. Scientists Kaye Lang and Mitch Rafelson are part of this small but determined minority. Once at the forefront of the discovery and study of the SHEVA outbreak they now live as virtual exiles in the Virginia suburbs with their daughter Stella, a bright inquisitive virus child who is quickly maturing, straining to break free of the protective world her parents have built around her and eager to seek out others of her kind. But for all their precautions, Kaye, Mitch, and Stella have not slipped below the government's radar. The agencies fanatically devoted to segregating and controlling the new breed children monitor their every move, watching and waiting for the opportunity to strike the next blow in their escalating war to preserve humankind at any cost.

City at the End of Time Greg Bear, 2008-08-05 Multiple Hugo and Nebula award winning author Greg Bear is one of science fiction's most accomplished writers. Bold scientific speculation, riveting plots, and a fierce humanism reflected in characters who dare to dream of better worlds distinguish his work. Now Bear has written a mind-bendingly epic novel that may well be his masterpiece. Do you dream of a city at the end of time? In a time like the present in a world that may or may not be our own, three young people, Ginny, Jack, and Daniel, dream of a doomed, decadent city of the distant future. The Kalpa. Ginny's and Jack's dreams overtake them without warning, leaving their bodies behind while carrying their consciousnesses forward into the minds of two inhabitants of the Kalpa: a would-be warrior, Jebrassy, and an inquisitive explorer, Tiadba, who have been genetically retro-engineered to possess qualities of ancient humanity. As for Daniel, he dreams of an empty darkness, all that his future holds. But more than dreams link Ginny, Jack, and Daniel. They are fate shifters, born with the ability to skip like stones across the surface of the fifth dimension, inhabiting alternate versions of themselves. And each guards an object whose origin and purpose are unknown: gnarled, stony artifacts called sum runners that persist unchanged through all versions of time. Hunted by others with similar powers who seek the sum runners on behalf of a terrifying goddess-like entity known as the Chalk Princess, Ginny, Jack, and Daniel are drawn, despite themselves, into an all-but-hopeless mission to rescue the future and complete the greatest achievement in human history.

of Ruin follows Adrian Tchaikovsky's extraordinary Children of Time winner of the Arthur C Clarke award. It is set in the same universe with new characters and a thrilling narrative. It has been waiting through the ages. Now it's time. Thousands of years ago, Earth's terraforming program took to the stars. On the world they called Nod, scientists discovered alien life, but it was their mission to overwrite it with the memory of Earth. Then humanity's great empire fell, and the program's decisions were lost to time. Aeons later, humanity and its new spider allies detected fragmentary radio signals between the stars. They dispatched an exploration vessel hoping to find cousins from old Earth. But those ancient terraformers woke something on Nod better left undisturbed. And it's been waiting for them. Books like this are why we read science fiction. Ian McDonald, author of the Luna series. All underpinned by great ideas. And it is crisply modern but with the sensibility of classic science fiction. Stephen Baxter, author of the Long Earth series with Terry Pratchett.
