Local Knowledge Clifford Geertz, 2008-08-04 In essays covering everything from art and common sense to charisma and constructions of the self the eminent cultural anthropologist and author of The Interpretation of Cultures deepens our understanding of human societies through the intimacies of local knowledge A companion volume to The Interpretation of Cultures this book continues Geertz's exploration of the meaning of culture and the importance of shared cultural symbolism With a new introduction by the author     Thomas Register, 2004     Rights-based Approaches Jessica Campese, 2009-01-01     Analyzing Discourse Robert A. Dooley, Stephen H. Levinsohn, 2001 Analyzing Discourse is an introduction to discourse analysis for linguistic field workers It is practical addressing issues commonly confronted by field linguists Rather than applying a rigid theory or surveying a variety of approaches it provides a methodology that has been refined over years of use The material follows a functional and cognitive approach that seems to be a good approximation of how discourse is actually produced and understood Since the aim of the manual is introductory rather than comprehensive most chapters are relatively short and the whole can be covered in fifteen classroom hours References are provided for further reading on the topics discussed The manual can be used individually or in group sessions such as in a formal course or a linguistic seminar In a group setting concepts can be illustrated by examining further texts than those provided in the manual Robert A Dooley has a Ph D from Oklahoma State University He has been involved in translation and the literacy team in the Brazilian Mby Guarani language project He also has served as Brazil SIL Linguistic Consultant and as Director of the Summer Institute of Linguistics University of North Dakota Session from 1988 to 1993 Artificial Hells Claire Bishop, 2012-07-24 Since the 1990s critics and curators have broadly accepted the notion that participatory art is the ultimate political art that by encouraging an audience to take part an artist can promote new emancipatory social relations Around the world the champions of this form of expression are numerous ranging from art historians such as Grant Kester curators such as Nicolas Bourriaud and Nato Thompson to performance theorists such as Shannon Jackson Artificial Hells is the first historical and theoretical overview of socially engaged participatory art known in the US as social practice Claire Bishop follows the trajectory of twentieth century art and examines key moments in the development of a participatory aesthetic This itinerary takes in Futurism and Dada the Situationist International Happenings in Eastern Europe Argentina and Paris the 1970s Community Arts Movement and the Artists Placement Group It concludes with a discussion of long term educational projects by contemporary artists such as Thomas Hirschhorn Tania Bruguera Pawe Althamer and Paul Chan Since her controversial essay in Artforum in 2006 Claire Bishop has been one of the few to challenge the political and aesthetic ambitions of participatory art In Artificial Hells she not only scrutinizes the emancipatory claims made for these projects but also provides an alternative to the ethical rather than artistic criteria invited by such artworks Artificial Hells calls for a less prescriptive approach to art and politics and for more compelling troubling and bolder forms of participatory art and criticism
