Genesis Curriculum was created to allow families to learn together with ready-to-go lessons that make learning easy and fun. Genesis Curriculum takes a book of the Bible and turns it into daily lessons in science, social studies, and language arts. Daily lessons also include reading a portion from the Bible, practicing a weekly memory verse, discussing a thought-provoking question, and learning a Biblical language. The second year in our series is the Book of Exodus. You will continue learning Hebrew this year. You will learn more about the Hebrew alphabet, and we'll work on learning Psalm 23. Writing will review the grammar of proper sentence structure but will also have a focus on descriptive writing with similes, metaphors, and using specific verbs and nouns. This assumes that you've been through the Book of Genesis curriculum and will review and build on what was previously learned. We've been given clear instruction in a powerful promise for parents. God tells us in Deuteronomy to "teach our children diligently." This passage and many others give us great insight as to how to do that and enjoy the promised blessing that always accompanies the mandates we are given. Learn the practical view of discipleship parenting, what God expects from parents, and how to put these truths into action. See how parenting with the vision of teaching them diligently will intentionally bear fruit and affect change in your own life as well. Move beyond giving lip-service to what you believe, and make the conscious choice to rely on the wisdom of God's holy instruction for your life and parenting. So, why are we as Christian parents still uncertain? Why do we live in fear? Why are we losing our children in record numbers? What can we do about it?
