Pathways Mora L. McLean,2019-10-21 This open access edited collection focusing on Ghana and Nigeria offers a transatlantic transnational exploration of barriers that threaten the wellbeing of West African youth ranging from Black immigrant youth in the American city of Newark New Jersey to students in Almajiri Islamic schools in Northern Nigeria Incorporating themes of migration vulnerability and agency and aspirations the book conveys the resilience of African youth transitioning toward adulthood in a world of structural inequality It thus crosses the academic divide between Youth Studies and African Studies while challenging conventional framings of Black youth as deficient and deviant positing instead their individual and collective creativity and assets The contributors employ different methodological approaches including field research and autoethnography from varying multidisciplinary and practitioner perspectives South Africa Survey,2009

Oya,Nicola Pontara,2015-05-22 There is a striking scarcity of work conducted on rural labour markets in the developing world particularly in Africa This book aims to fill this gap by bringing together a group of contributors who boast substantial field experience researching rural wage employment in various developing countries It provides critical perspectives on mainstream approaches to rural agrarian development and analysis of agrarian change and rural transformations from a long term perspective This book challenges the notion that rural areas in low and middle income countries are dominated by self employment It purports that this conventional view is largely due to the application of conceptual frameworks and statistical conventions that are ill equipped to capture labour market participation The contributions in this book offer a variety of methodological lessons for the study of rural labour markets focusing in particular on the use of mixed methods in micro level field research and more emphasis on capturing occupation multiplicity The emphasis on context history and specific configurations of power relations affecting rural labour market outcomes are key and reoccurring features of this book This analysis will help readers think about policy options to improve the quantity and quality of rural wage employment their impact on the poorest rural people and their political feasibility in each context Lippincott's Pronouncing Gazetteer Joseph Thomas,Thomas Baldwin (of Philadelphia.),1856 Lippincott's Pronouncing Gazetter Joseph Thomas,Thomas Baldwin,1872
