The Naked Future Patrick Tucker, 2015-02-24. A thorough yet thoroughly digestible book on the ubiquity of data gathering and the unraveling of personal privacy. Daniel Pink author of Drive. Thanks to recent advances in technology prediction models for individual behavior grow more sophisticated by the day. Whether you'll marry, commit a crime or fall victim to one or contract a disease are becoming easily accessible facts. The naked future is upon us and the implications are staggering. Patrick Tucker draws on fascinating stories from health care to urban planning to online dating. He shows how scientists can predict your behavior based on your friends' Twitter updates, anticipate the weather a year from now, figure out the time of day you're most likely to slip back into a bad habit and guess how well you'll do on a test before you take it. Tucker knows that the rise of Big Data is not always a good thing. But he also shows how we've gained tremendous benefits that we have yet to fully realize.

The Business of Electronics A. Kumar Sethi, 2013-11-19. Electronics is an ever changing field with an entrepreneurial spirit and a rich history populated by some of the world's most famous companies and personalities. The Business of Electronics details the field's complex ecosystem in all its trials and tribulations. It looks at companies such as Apple, IBM, Samsung and Nokia as well as now extinct companies such as Honeywell, Bull France and Sinclair Computers UK that contributed to technology and business. Sethi shows us how a handful of US companies led the charge in designing equipment that could make millions of small reliable components, how Nokia started in the timber business, the history of inventors like J C Bose, a pioneer in radio communication who inadvertently made Guglielmo Marconi famous and why there are numerous companies and creators that never made it or that we have never heard of. This all encompassing book not only explores the vibrant history of electronics, it uses case studies to examine the companies and people that made history and explain how we ended up where we are today.
