Obsessed by a Dream Aashild Sørheim,2019-01-01 This Open Access biography chronicles the life and achievements of the Norwegian engineer and physicist Rolf Wider e Readers who meet him in the pages of this book will wonder why he isn t better known The first of Wider e s many pioneering contributions in the field of accelerator physics was the betatron He later went on to build the first radiation therapy machine an advance that would eventually revolutionize cancer treatment Hospitals worldwide installed his machine and today s modern radiation treatment equipment is based on his inventions Wider e s story also includes a fair share of drama particularly during World War II when both Germans and the Allies vied for his collaboration Wider e held leading positions in multinational industry groups and was one of the consultants for building the world s largest nuclear laboratory CERN in Switzerland He gained over 200 patents received several honorary doctorates and a number of international awards The author a professional writer and maker of TV documentaries has gained access to hitherto restricted archives in several countries which provided a wealth of new material and insights in particular in relation to the war years She tells here a gripping and illuminating story

Whitewash John Gabriel,1998 This book questions how language in various mediums television radio internet the press might be accused of constructing a language of a white supremacy of ideas and politics

On the Beach Nevil Shute,2010-02-09 The most shocking fiction I have read in years What is shocking about it is both the idea and the sheer imaginative brilliance with which Mr Shute brings it off THE SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE They are the last generation the innocent victims of an accidental war living out their last days making do with what they have hoping for a miracle As the deadly rain moves ever closer the world as we know it winds toward an inevitable end

Whitewash Louise Mead,2012-11-01

In Defense of Looting Vicky Osterweil,2020-08-25 A fresh argument for rioting and looting as our most powerful tools for dismantling white supremacy Looting a crowd of people publicly openly and directly seizing goods is one of the more extreme actions that can take place in the midst of social unrest Even self identified radicals distance themselves from looters fearing that violent tactics reflect badly on the broader movement But Vicky Osterweil argues that stealing goods and destroying property are direct pragmatic strategies of wealth redistribution and improving life for the working class not to mention the brazen messages these methods send to the police and the state All our beliefs about the innate righteousness of property and ownership Osterweil explains are built on the history of anti Black anti Indigenous oppression From slave revolts to labor strikes to the modern day movements for climate change Black lives and police abolition Osterweil makes a convincing case for rioting and looting as weapons that bludgeon the status quo while uplifting the poor and marginalized In Defense of Looting is a history of violent protest sparking social change a compelling reframing of revolutionary activism and a practical vision for a dramatically restructured society

Brilliant Jane Brox, 2010-06-29 This superb history of artificial light traces the evolution of society invariably fascinating and often original it amply lives up to its title Publishers Weekly starred review In Brilliant Jane Brox explores humankind's ever changing relationship to artificial light from the stone lamps of the Pleistocene to the LEDs embedded in fabrics of the future More than a survey of technological development this sweeping history reveals how artificial light changed our world and how those social and cultural changes in turn led to the pursuit of more ways of spreading maintaining and controlling light Brox plumbs the class implications of light who had it who didn't through the centuries when crude lamps and tallow candles constricted waking hours She identifies the pursuit of whale oil as the first time the need for light thrust us toward an environmental tipping point Only decades later gas street lights opened up the evening hours to leisure which changed the ways we live and sleep and the world's ecosystems Edison's bulbs produced a light that seemed to its users all but divorced from human effort or cost And yet as Brox's informative portrait of our current grid system shows the cost is ever with us Brilliant is infused with human voices startling insights and timely questions about how our future lives will be shaped by light

Blood, money & power Barr McClellan, 2003 The author formerly one of Lyndon Johnson's lawyers explains why he believes that Johnson was behind the Kennedy assassination

The Poisonwood Bible Barbara Kingsolver, 2009-10-13 New York Times Bestseller Finalist for the Pulitzer Prize An Oprah's Book Club Selection Powerful Kingsolver has with infinitely steady hands worked the prickly threads of religion politics race sin and redemption into a thing of terrible beauty Los Angeles Times Book Review The Poisonwood Bible now celebrating its 25th anniversary established Barbara Kingsolver as one of the most thoughtful and daring of modern writers Taking its place alongside the classic works of postcolonial literature it is a suspenseful epic of one family's tragic undoing and remarkable reconstruction over the course of three decades in Africa The story is told by the wife and four daughters of Nathan Price a fierce evangelical Baptist who takes his family and mission to the Belgian Congo in 1959 They carry with them everything they believe they will need from home but soon find that all of it from garden seeds to Scripture is calamitously transformed on African soil The novel is set against one of the most dramatic political chronicles of the twentieth century the Congo's fight for independence from Belgium the murder of its first elected prime minister the CIA coup to install his replacement and the insidious progress of a world economic order that robs the fledgling African nation of its autonomy Against this backdrop Orleana Price reconstructs the story of her evangelist husband's part in the Western assault on Africa a tale indelibly darkened by her own losses and unanswerable questions about her own culpability Also narrating the story by turns are her four daughters the teenaged Rachel adolescent twins Leah and Adah and Ruth May a prescient five year old These sharply observant girls who arrive in the Congo with racial preconceptions forged in 1950s Georgia will be marked in surprisingly different ways by their father's intractable mission and by Africa itself Ultimately each must strike her own separate path to salvation Their passionately intertwined stories become a compelling exploration of moral risk and personal responsibility

The Burning Jonathan Kellerman, Jesse Kellerman, 2021-09-21 Things get personal for Deputy Coroner Clay Edison when a murder hits close to home in this riveting emotional thriller from the bestselling father son team who write brilliant page turning fiction Stephen King A raging wildfire A massive blackout A wealthy man shot to death in his palatial hilltop home For Clay Edison it's all in a day's work As a deputy coroner caring for the dead he speaks for those who cannot speak for themselves He prides himself on an unflinching commitment to the truth Even when it gets him into trouble Then while working the murder scene Clay is horrified to discover a link to his brother Luke Horrified But not surprised Luke is fresh out of prison and struggling to stay on the straight and narrow And now he's gone AWOL The race is on for Clay to find him before anyone else can Confronted with Luke's legacy of violence Clay is forced to reckon with his own suspicions resentments and loyalties Is his brother a killer Or could he be the victim in all of this too This is Jonathan and Jesse Kellerman at their most affecting and page turning a harrowing collision of family revenge and murder

Web of Darkness Sean Sellers, 1990

Christian Faith and the Truth Behind 9/11 David Ray Griffin, 2006 Probing disturbing questions that beg for a response from the Christian community a distinguished scholar of religion and popular writer analyzes the evidence about 9/11 and then explores a distinctively Christian perspective on these issues taking seriously what we know about Jesus life death and teachings

World Report 2020 Human Rights Watch, 2020-01-28 The best country by country assessment of human rights The human rights records of more than ninety countries and territories are put into perspective in Human Rights Watch's signature yearly report Reflecting extensive investigative work undertaken by Human Rights Watch staff in close partnership with domestic human rights activists the annual World Report is an invaluable resource for journalists diplomats and citizens and is a must read for anyone interested in the fight to protect human rights in every corner of the globe

The Spitfire Grill James Valcq, Fred Alley, Lee David Zlotoff, 2002 It all starts with the release of fidgety suspicious Percy Talbott from state prison after serving a five year sentence We don't know why only that she's released and on her way to Gilead and its colors of paradise But when she arrives it is February and bitter cold and the only one around to meet her is restless Sheriff Joe Turner who takes her to the Spitfire Grill to help the aging Hannah Ferguson run the diner All is gray dismal and listless around them and the characters are in the winter of their lives emotionally and spiritually
