this collection offers first hand perspectives collected from girls and young women themselves providing a unique window on what it is to be a girl in today s digitized society More Than Anything Natasha Anders,2019-06 Two lovers strive to trade a grim past for a bright future in this story of bittersweet yearning Tina Jenson belongs to the same social stratum as Harris Chapman but he s out of her league at least that s what she thinks before they jump in bed together It s the perfect night but when she overhears crude hurtful comments the next morning she can t get away fast enough Ten years later Tina s life is a mess That night with Harris didn t just hurt her feelings it started a cascade of disappointment and heartbreak Every time she bumps into Harris her heart twists inside out She still wants him but she s harboring a painful secret from their night together that she s not ready to reveal Crossed signals high society whispers and shame have kept Tina and Harris apart for years but deep down they re hungry for each other and eager to write their own rules Can they let go of the past and find their way back to each other or are the barriers between them too high and too strong MARRIAGE MELTDOWN Emma Darcy,KINUKO NAKAYAMA,2020-02-01 Gina has been married to her wealthy handsome husband Reid for seven years They were blessed with adorable children and supposedly living a happy life as a married couple But then Gina started to suspect that her husband was cheating on her and it left her in a state of indecision Now to make matters worse her husband has announced the unthinkable he and his secretary are heading off on a business trip The worst part is they ll be staying in the same suite Has his heart moved on from Gina to another woman In order to win him back Gina s going to take drastic measures that will shock even her Remains of the Soviet Past in Estonia Francisco Martinez,2018-07-06 What happens to legacies that do not find any continuation In Estonia a new generation that does not remember the socialist era and is open to global influences has grown up As a result the impact of the Soviet memory in people s conventional values is losing its effective power opening new opportunities for repair and revaluation of the past Francisco Martinez brings together a number of sites of interest to explore the vanquishing of the Soviet legacy in Estonia the railway bazaar in Tallinn where concepts such as market and employment take on distinctly different meanings from their Western use Linnahall a grandiose venue whose Soviet heritage now poses diffi cult questions of how to present the building s history Tallinn s cityscape where the social spatial and temporal co evolution of the city can be viewed and debated Narva a city that marks the border between the Russian Federation NATO and the European Union and represents a place of continual negotiation of belonging and the new Estonian National Museum in Raadi an area on the outskirts of Tartu that has been turned into a memory field The anthropological study of all these places shows that national identity and historical representations can be constructed in relation to waste and disrepair too also demonstrating how we can understand generational change in a material sense Praise for Remains of the Soviet Past in Estonia By adopting the tropes of repair and waste this book innovatively manages to link various material registers from architecture intergenerational relations affect and museums with ways of making the past present Through a rigorous yet transdisciplinary method Mart nez brings together different scales and contexts that would often be segregated out In this respect the ethnography unfolds a deep and nuanced analysis providing a useful comparative and insightful account of the processes of repair and waste making in all their material social and ontological dimensions Victor Buchli Professor of Material Culture at UCL This book comprises an endearingly transdisciplinary ethnography of postsocialist material culture and social change in Estonia Mart nez creatively draws on a number of critical and cultural theorists together with additional research on memory and political studies scholarship and the classics of anthropology Grappling concurrently with time and space the book offers a delightfully thick description of the material effects generated by the accelerated post Soviet transformation in Estonia inquiring into the generational specificities in experiencing and relating to the postsocialist condition through the conceptual anchors of wasted legacies and repair This book defies disciplinary boundaries and shows how an attention to material relations and affective infrastructures might reinvigorate political theory Maria M lksoo Senior Lecturer Brussels School of International Studies at the University of Kent
