

A physician's order would include the brand and/or generic name of the drug. The alphabetic index in the PDR would make this section the most user friendly. Based on a physician's order, manufacturer's information and classification information would not be known. The Manufacturer's section is a matter of manufacturers. The Product Category section lists products subdivided by therapeutic classes, such as analgesics, sedatives, anesthetics, and antibiotics. The Product Information section contains updates of the package inserts for the major products of manufacturers.
