Letters from Uncle Fred Frederick Spencer Kiley,2014-08-08 When I published Denizens of New Boston Road Fred asked me why I had listed our brother Joseph Patrick Kiley Jr as the author It was not a mistake on my part it was the only way I could get on with the project because I had been badgering him for weeks to allow me to list him as the author which he was At that time he was still teaching at Trenton State and I assume he was reluctant to let his students and associates see his published works He mellowed after a short time because everyone approved of his writings The publication of Denizens led to a discussion of his other writings and that brought up the subject of the letters which we had been exchanging over the years He told me that the letters meant a lot to him because he used them to force him to continue writing even when the mood to write wasn't on him He also told me that the freedom he enjoyed in writing letters was the limited audience to whom he was writing friends and family In this publication I am violating that limitation by allowing you to enter into the audience that can see and read the thoughts he had intended for a select few Fred felt that in letter writing there could be an intimate bonding between the writer and the recipient in the best case a touching of souls Fred was still an innocent in many respects even after the war had stripped him of most of his innocence He wrote using humor sarcasm and other artifices to conceal his true message which was love He had a love for natural beauty children and animals He had admiration for talent honesty and integrity I hope that you can discover that by reading his letters He was my big brother and I loved him
