Methodology of the Oppressed Chela Sandoval, 2000 In a work with far reaching implications Chela Sandoval does no less than revise the genealogy of theory over the past thirty years inserting what she terms U S Third World feminism into the narrative in a way that thoroughly alters our perspective on contemporary culture and subjectivity What Sandoval has identified is a language a rhetoric of resistance to postmodern cultural conditions U S liberation movements of the post World War II era generated specific modes of oppositional consciousness Out of these emerged a new activity of consciousness and language Sandoval calls the methodology of the oppressed This methodology born of the strains of the cultural and identity struggles that currently mark global exchange holds out the possibility of a new historical moment a new citizen subject and a new form of alliance consciousness and politics Utilizing semiotics and U S Third World feminist criticism Sandoval demonstrates how this methodology mobilizes love as a category of critical analysis Rendering this approach in all its specifics Methodology of the Oppressed gives rise to an alternative mode of criticism opening new perspectives on a theoretical literary aesthetic social movement or psychic expression Feminist and Queer Information Studies Reader Patrick Keilty, Rebecca Dean, 2013 Gathers existing research along with new scholarship on the intersection of gender and sexuality and information use Provided by publisher Chicana Movidas Dionne Espinoza, María Eugenia Coterá, Maylei Blackwell, 2018-06-01 With contributions from a wide array of scholars and activists including leading Chicana feminists from the period this groundbreaking anthology is the first collection of scholarly essays and testimonios that focuses on Chicana organizing activism and leadership in the movement years The essays in Chicana Movidas New Narratives of Activism and Feminism in the Movement Era demonstrate how Chicanas enacted a new kind of política at the intersection of race class gender and sexuality and developed innovative concepts tactics and methodologies that in turn generated new theories art forms organizational spaces and strategies of alliance These are the technologies of resistance documented in Chicana Movidas a volume that brings together critical biographies of Chicana activists and their bodies of work essays that focus on understudied organizations mobilizations regions and subjects examinations of emergent Chicana archives and the politics of collection and scholarly approaches that challenge the temporal political heteronormative and spatial limits of established Chicano movement narratives Charting the rise of a field of knowledge that crosses the boundaries of Chicano studies feminist theory and queer theory Chicana Movidas New Narratives of Activism and Feminism in the Movement Era offers a transgenerational perspective on the intellectual and political legacies of early Chicana feminism Decolonizing Epistemologies Ada María Isasi-Díaz, Eduardo Mendieta, 2012 This anthology gathers the work of three generations of Latina o theologians and philosopher who have taken up the task of decolonizing epistemology by transforming their respective disciplines from the standpoint liberation thought and of what has been called the decolonial turn in social theory theology and philosophy At the heart of this collection is the unveiling of subjugated knowledge elaborated by Latina o scholars who take seriously their social location and that of their communities of accountability and how these impact the development of a different episteme Refusing to continue to allow to be made invisible by the dominant discourse this group of scholars show the unsuspecting and original ways in which Latina o social and historical loci in the US are generative places for the creation of new matrixes of knowledge The book articulates a new point of departure for the self understanding of Latinas/os for other marginalized and oppress groups and for all those seeking to engage the move beyond coloniality as it continues to be present in this age of globalization Chicana Art Laura E. Pérez, 2007-08-09 DIV The first full length survey of contemporary Chicana artists div Social Change and Intersectional Activism Sharon Doetsch-Kidder, 2012-06-04 Reading texts in relation to feminist queer and race theory and Buddhist philosophy this book argues that an understanding of spirit is critical to explaining the power that social movements have to change hearts minds and social structures

Decentering the Center Uma Narayan, Sandra G. Harding, Sandra Harding, 2000 The essays in this volume bring to their focuses on philosophical issues the new angles of vision created by the multicultural global and postcolonial feminisms that have been developing around us These multicultural global and postcolonial feminist concerns transform mainstream notions of experience human rights the origins of philosophic issues philosophic uses of metaphors of the family white antiracism human progress scientific progress modernity the unity of scientific method the desirability of universal knowledge claims and other ideas central to philosophy

Performing the US Latina and Latino Borderlands

Arturo J. Aldama, Chela Sandoval, Peter J. García, 2012-10-09 In this interdisciplinary volume contributors analyze the expression of Latina o cultural identity through performance With music theater dance visual arts body art spoken word performance activism fashion and street theater as points of entry contributors discuss cultural practices and the fashioning of identity in Latino a communities throughout the US Examining the areas of crossover between Latin and American cultures gives new meaning to the notion of borderlands This volume features senior scholars and up and coming academics from cultural visual and performance studies folklore and ethnomusicology

Feminist Studies Nina Lykke, 2010-04-05 In this book feminist scholar Nina Lykke highlights current issues in feminist theory epistemology and methodology Combining introductory overviews with cutting edge reflections Lykke focuses on analytical approaches to gendered power differentials intersecting with other processes of social in exclusion based on race class and sexuality Lykke confronts and contrasts classical stances in feminist epistemology with poststructuralist and postconstructionist feminisms and also brings bodily materiality into dialogue with theories of the performativity of gender and sex This thorough and needed analysis of the state of Feminist Studies will be a welcome addition to scholars and students in Gender and Women s Studies and Sociology

Power Lines Aimee Carrillo Rowe, 2008-09-25 Like the complex systems of man made power lines that transmit electricity and connect people and places feminist alliances are elaborate networks that have the potential to provide access to institutional power and to transform relations In Power Lines Aimee Carrillo Rowe explores the formation and transformative possibilities of transracial feminist alliances She draws on her conversations with twenty eight self defined academic feminists who reflect on their academic careers alliances feminist struggles and identifications Based on those conversations and her own experiences as an Anglo Chicana queer feminist researcher Carrillo Rowe investigates when and under what conditions transracial feminist alliances in academia work or fail and how close attention to their formation provides the theoretical and political groundwork for a collective vision of subjectivity Combining theory criticism and narrative nonfiction Carrillo Rowe develops a politics of relation that encourages the formation of feminist alliances across racial and other boundaries within academia Such a politics of relation is founded on her belief that our subjectivities emerge in community our affective investments inform and even create our political investments Thus experience consciousness and agency must be understood as coalitional rather than individual endeavors Carrillo Rowe s conversations with academic feminists reveal that women who restrict their primary allies to women of their same race tend to have limited notions of feminism whereas women who build transracial alliances cultivate more nuanced intersectional and politically transformative feminisms For Carrillo Rowe the institutionalization of feminism is not so much an achievement as an ongoing relational process In Power Lines she offers a set of critical practical and theoretical tools for building and maintaining transracial feminist alliances

An Anatomy of Feminist Resistance Henriette Dahan Kalev,2018-11-27 The book explores the story of two women living in remote town Mitzpe Ramon in the Negev Desert in south Israel These women lived in poverty and worked under oppressive conditions for all their lives until one day they began to resist Standing for the rights of working women and mothers they led protests and strikes that shook the entire country for weeks In An Anatomy of Feminist Resistance Rebel in the Wilderness Dahan Kalev s innovative perspective examines both the public and private spheres of these woman s lives and reveals the existence of a third sphere in which women are able to find their voices This study deciphers what causes women to accept conditions of oppression under what circumstances will women begin to resist and what are the political transformations rebellious women undergo while fighting oppression

Decolonizing Methodologies Linda Tuhiwai Smith,2016-03-15 A landmark in the process of decolonizing imperial Western knowledge Walter Dignolo Duke University To the colonized the term research is conflated with European colonialism the ways in which academic research has been implicated in the throes of imperialism remains a painful memory This essential volume explores intersections of imperialism and research specifically the ways in which imperialism is embedded in disciplines of knowledge and tradition as regimes of truth Concepts such as discovery and claiming are discussed and an argument presented that the decolonization of research methods will help to reclaim control over indigenous ways of knowing and being Now in its eagerly awaited second edition this bestselling book has been substantially revised with new case studies and examples and important additions on new indigenous literature the role of research in indigenous struggles for social justice which brings this essential volume urgently up to date

The Colonial Harem Malek Alloula,1987

Massacre of the Dreamers Ana Castillo,1995 f the Dreamers points out the omissions and challenges the misconceptions of a society that recognizes race relations as primarily a black and white issue Castillo s essays analyze the 500 year old history of Mexican and Amerindian women in this country and document the ongoing political and emotional struggles of their descendants

The Chicano Studies Reader Chon A. Noriega, Eric Avila, Rafael Prez-torres, Karen Mary Davalos,2020 An anthology of articles from Aztl n A Journal of Chicano Studies published between 1970 and 2019 The fourth edition includes a new section on Chicana o and Latina o youth

Finding the Movement Finn Enke,2007-11-07 In Finding the Movement Anne Enke reveals that diverse women s engagement with public spaces gave rise to and profoundly shaped second wave feminism Focusing on women s activism in Detroit Chicago and Minneapolis St Paul during the 1960s and 1970s Enke describes how women across race and class created a massive groundswell of feminist activism by directly intervening in the urban landscape They secured illicit meeting spaces and gained access to public athletic fields They fought to open bars to women and abolish gendered dress codes and prohibitions against lesbian congregation They created alternative spaces such as coffeehouses where women could socialize and organize They opened women oriented bookstores restaurants cafes and clubs and they took it upon themselves to establish women s shelters health clinics and credit unions in order to support women s bodily autonomy By considering the development of feminism through an analysis of public space Enke expands and revises the historiography of second wave feminism She suggests that the movement was so widespread because it was built by people who did not identify themselves as feminists as well as by those who did Her focus on claims to public space helps to explain why sexuality lesbianism and gender expression were so central to feminist activism Her spatial analysis also sheds light on hierarchies within the movement As women turned commercial civic and institutional spaces into sites of activism they produced as well as resisted exclusionary dynamics

Differences Emily Parker, Anne M. Van Leeuwen, 2018 Simone de Beauvoir and Luce Irigaray famously insisted on their philosophical differences and this mutual insistence has largely guided the reception of their thought What does it mean to return to Simone de Beauvoir and Luce Irigaray in light of questions and problems of contemporary feminism including intersectional and queer criticisms of their projects How should we now take up amplify and surpass the horizons opened by their projects Seeking answers to these questions the essays in this volume return to Beauvoir and Irigaray to find what the two philosophers share And as the authors make clear the richness of Beauvoir and Irigaray s thought far exceeds the reductive parameters of the Eurocentric bourgeois second wave debates that have constrained interpretation of their work The first section of this volume places Beauvoir and Irigaray in critical dialogue exploring the place of the material and the corporeal in Beauvoir s thought and in doing so reading Beauvoir in a framework that goes beyond a theory of gender and the humanism of phenomenology The essays in the second section of the volume take up the challenge of articulating points of dialogue between the two focal philosophers in logic ethics and politics Combined these essays resituate Beauvoir and Irigaray s work both historically and in light of contemporary demands breaking new ground in feminist philosophy

The Gloria Anzaldúa Reader Gloria Anzaldúa, 2009-10-22 Born in the Rio Grande Valley of south Texas independent scholar and creative writer Gloria Anzaldúa was an internationally acclaimed cultural theorist As the author of Borderlands La Frontera The New Mestiza Anzaldúa played a major role in shaping contemporary Chicano a and lesbian queer theories and identities As an editor of three anthologies including the groundbreaking This Bridge Called My Back Writings by Radical Women of Color she played an equally vital role in developing an inclusionary multicultural feminist movement A versatile author Anzaldúa published poetry theoretical essays short stories autobiographical narratives interviews and children s books Her work which has been included in more than 100 anthologies to date has helped to transform academic fields including American Chicano a composition ethnic literary and women's studies This reader which provides a representative sample of the poetry prose fiction and experimental autobiographical writing that Anzaldá produced during her thirty year career demonstrates the breadth and philosophical depth of her work While the reader contains much of Anzaldá's published writing including several pieces now out of print more than half the material has never before been published This newly available work offers fresh insights into crucial aspects of Anzaldá's life and career including her upbringing education teaching experiences writing practice and aesthetics lifelong health struggles and interest in visual art as well as her theories of disability multiculturalism pedagogy and spiritual activism The pieces are arranged chronologically each one is preceded by a brief introduction The collection includes a glossary of Anzaldá's key terms and concepts a timeline of her life primary and secondary bibliographies and a detailed index
