Nouwen, 1979-02-02 A radically fresh interpretation of how we can best serve others from the bestselling author of The Return of the Prodigal Son hailed as one of the world's greatest spiritual writers by Christianity Today In our own woundedness we can become a source of life for others In this hope filled and profoundly simple book Henri Nouwen inspires devoted men and women who want to be of service in their church or community but who have found traditional outreach alienating and ineffective Weaving keen cultural analysis with his psychological and religious insights Nouwen presents a balanced and creative theology of service that begins with the realization of fundamental woundedness in human nature According to Nouwen ministers are called to identify the suffering in their own hearts and make that recognition the starting point of their service Ministers must be willing to go beyond their professional somewhat aloof roles and leave themselves open as fellow human beings with the same wounds and suffering as those they serve In other words we heal from our wounds The Wounded Healer is a thoughtful and insightful guide that will be welcomed by anyone engaged in the service of others

Bread for the Journey Henri J. M. Nouwen, 2006-11-21 When beloved author Henri Nouwen set out to record this daybook of totally new reflections, he suddenly found himself on a true spiritual adventure. For in these 366 original interlocking morsels of daily wisdom, Nouwen provides both sustenance and a trail for us to follow as he unveils to his own surprise his personal map of faith. From the delicate interplay of human experience to the surrender to Christ and the embrace of Christian community, that journey of Christian spirituality is explored and celebrated here in each eloquent thought-provoking passage. The table is one of the most intimate places in our lives. It is there that we give ourselves to one another. When we say, "Take some more, let me serve you," another plate, let me pour you another glass, don't be shy, enjoy it, we say a lot more than our words express. We invite our friends to become part of our lives. We want them to be nurtured by the same food and drink that nurture us. We desire communion. Every breakfast, lunch, or dinner can become a time of growing communion with one another. Intimately personal and inspiring, Bread for the Journey is a daily feast of fresh insight into the challenges and deep joys of a life lived in close communion with God. Nouwen is a wise, loving companion who invites us along as he finds joy in the community of loss, true freedom in forgiveness of others, and hope in surprising places. Each daily meditation is a stepping stone along a path of private discovery, offering Nouwen's seasoned yet fresh ideas on kindness, love, suffering, and prayer, the Church as God's people, and the importance of Jesus in one's life, reflecting as a whole Nouwen's own personal creed. Bread for the Journey brims with daily nourishment and guidance for devoted followers and new friends alike, food for thought on a yearlong journey of discovery and faith.
