

Customer Service Quiz

by Cathy Alexander

1. Your Director is giving a tour with a perspective family. When she comes into your room, Do you:

- a) Tell her you have cramps and want to go home.
- b) Tell her if Billy and Sally both come in today you'll "be over".
- c) Smile and warmly greet the parent and the child, bending down to the child's eye level.
- d) Ask her, if, while she's standing there, you can run to the kitchen real quick and get a can of pop?

2. You are right in the middle of a messy art project when your Director comes in with a tour. Do you:

- a) Invite the child to participate.
- b) Tell the parent that this is a bad time, could she come back later?
- c) Tell the parent "Oh, this is nothing. You should see how bad it is on a day when Billy is here!"
- d) State that you don't understand why you have to do all of this NABYC-stuff anyway & that you've wrecked 4 shirts since May with this so-called "open-ended art" crap.

3. A perspective parent asks you a question about the classroom you are in and you don't quite know how to answer it. Do you say:

- a) "How would I know? I just go where they tell me to go. Last week I was the cook."
- b) "I'm not usually in this room. Miss Sarge is, but she got fired."
- c) Reply with the standard "I don't know."
- d) "I'm not really sure about that. Why don't I find that out for you?"

4. Perspective parents on a tour share with you that they think that their child is gifted. Do you say:

- a) "Yeah, whatever. When is little Einstein starting?"
- b) "Yeah, all parents think that."
- c) "He sure doesn't look gifted. His shoes are on the wrong feet."
- d) "Great! We work very hard at making sure all of the children are stimulated at whatever level they are at. These are some of the things we do..."

sector now more than ever before as customers are looking to increase value for money and are less forgiving of mediocre service. However, despite its importance, quality customer service is the exception rather than the norm in many parts of the world. Customer Service for Hospitality and Tourism is a unique text and vital to both students and practitioners as it explains not only the theory behind the importance of customer service but also acts as a guidebook for those wishing to put this theory into practice. In essence, it is the whys and hows of customer service. It is easy to read, very current, and full of references to all the latest research from both academic and practitioner literature. Chapters cover important topics such as the financial and behavioural consequences of customer service, consumer trends influencing service, developing and maintaining a service culture, managing service encounters, the importance of market research, building and maintaining customer relationships, providing customer service through the servicescape, the impact of technology on customer service, the importance of service recovery, and promoting customer service internally and externally. Key features include: An At Your Service Spotlight at the beginning of each chapter focuses on the achievements of successful individuals related to the art of customer service. Each chapter contains a Service Snapshot, short real-life cases to illustrate a particular concept or theoretical principle presented in the chapter. Detailed international Case Studies which cover a variety of sectors, organizations, and regions designed to foster critical thinking; the cases illustrate actual business scenarios that stress several concepts found in the chapter. They analyze customer service in the U.S., South America, South Africa, Europe, Russia, Australia, China, Canada, Korea, and Dubai.
