Leigh,2013-12-04 How far would you go to save a soul My name is Gary Leigh I'm an Empath and some say a psychic I'm also a phoenix This autobiography details my personal experiences that have occurred over 49 years of my life From my early 20s I started to get the message in my thoughts You are the phoenix over and over again all day every day until present day I tell my story so others can benefit from my experiences One that is about the memories of the Egyptian gods Atlantis and beyond What really happened with the god Seth and what were the real reasons why he attacked his family In essence it's a book about giving power back to people Everyone is a god The only difference between them and others is the level of awareness that a person has It's about taking responsibility for our lives and not giving our power away to others and that no one is beyond redemption It's about helping others understand similar experiences so they can realize that they may not be crazy after all It includes a section on the process of self realization soul calls and what it means to be an Empath This is a unique and compelling document which gives a very different take on these known myths Come On, Rain! Karen Hesse,2016-01-26 Newbery Medalist Karen Hesse recreates the body and soul renewing experience of a summer downpour after a sweltering city heat wave Come on rain Tess pleads to the sky as listless vines and parched plants droop in the endless heat Up and down the block cats pant while heat wavers off tar patches in the broiling alleyway More than anything Tess hopes for rain And when it comes she and her friends are ready for a surprising and joyous celebration Through exquisite language and acute observation Newberry medalist Karen Hesse recreates the glorious experience of a quenching rainstorm on a sweltering summer day Jon J Muth's masterful and lyrical watercolors perfectly reflect the spirit of the text Brooklyn Bridge Karen Hesse, 2008-09-02 Karen Hesse has achieved many honors for her more than twenty books over the course of her award-winning career the Newbery Medal the Scott O Dell Historical Fiction Award the MacArthur Fellowship Genius Award and the Christopher Medal Her novels burn with intensity and keenly felt deeply researched and are memorable for their imagination and intelligence So it is with great pride and excitement that we present Karen Hesse's first novel in over five years Brooklyn Bridge It's the summer of 1903 in Brooklyn and all fourteen year old Joseph Michtom wants is to experience the thrill the grandeur and the electricity of the new amusement park at Coney Island But that doesn't seem likely Ever since his parents Russian immigrants invented the stuffed Teddy Bear five months ago Joseph's life has turned upside down No longer do the Michtom's gather family and friends around the kitchen table to talk No longer is Joseph at leisure to play stickball with the guys Now Joseph works And complains And falls in love And argues with Mama and Papa And falls out of love And hopes Joseph hopes he'll see Coney Island soon He hopes that everything will turn right side up again He hopes his luck hasn't run out because you never know Through all the warmth the sadness the frustration and the laughter of one big colorful family Newbery Medalist Karen Hesse builds a stunning story of the lucky the unlucky and those in between and reminds us that our lives all our lives are fragile precious and connected Brooklyn Bridge is a 2009 Bank Street Best Children's Book of the Year
