Ana is a new student. But she has a problem. She is lost in her school. Can a new friend help her? Subject: English Language Arts (ELA); Unit 01; Proficiency Level: Level C Sag mal is the introductory German program you've been waiting for! This program's emphasis on contemporary culture, a thorough coverage of reading, speaking, and listening skills, and its integration of authentic video will guide your students from novice to conversant. Life is not what you get out of it . . . it's what you put back in. Yet our current means for summarizing life's work, from resumes to salaries, are devoid of what matters most. This is why the work we do is often bad for our wellbeing, when it should be making us happier and healthier. What are the most meaningful contributions we can make? This is Life's Great Question. Life is about what you do that improves the world around you. It is about investing in the development of other people. And it is about efforts that will continue to grow when you are gone. Life's Great Question will show you how to make your work and life more meaningful, and greatly boost your wellbeing. In this remarkably quick read, author Tom Rath describes how finding your greatest contribution is far more effective than following talent or passion alone. More than a book, each copy includes a code for an online program that identifies the most significant contributions you can make. This deeply practical book will alter how you look at your work and change the way you live each day. Panorama, 4th Edition is an introductory Spanish program offering 15 contemporary, thematic lessons to introduce students to an extensive view of the Spanish-speaking world. Its fresh, student-friendly approach, effective integration of video, and powerful online tools lead students to effective personalized communication. Emma lives in the city. People in Emma's city walk, drive, and fly. Why is Emma's city a fun place to live? Subject: Social Studies (SS); Unit 08; Proficiency Level: Level C It's Rita first day at a new school. She does not know the teachers or students. She does not know the school. Will she be OK? Subject: English Language Arts (ELA); Unit 01; Proficiency Level: Level A Conversaciones escritas: Lectura y redaccion en contexto, 2nd Edition contains updated data and resources including substantial revisions throughout the book as well as translated texts that have been re-edited for structure and fluency. This text includes more suggested video links in Spanish and writing activities based on essays to help readers write in Spanish. Each chapter contains a minimum of two readings presenting different aspects of a particular debate on topics. With the help of engaging essays and practice exercises that more closely reflect thematic content of chapters; the heart of this text deals with contemporary cultural and community topics. Visit author Kim Potowski's website at potowski.org/conversaciones for more information, plus a video detailing the text's pedagogical approach. Tim and André like the same things. They talk often. They're good friends. But there's something interesting. Tim and André have never met! How can they be friends? Will they ever meet somewhere? Subject: Social Studies; Unit 03; Proficiency Level: Level B A mother and daughter go on a trip. How do they know where to go? They look at the map! Subject: Social Studies (SS); Unit 05; Proficiency Level: Level B
