Fourth edition of a popular textbook. Primary or supplementary text for teacher education, methods courses, and seminar courses for student teachers. "A beginning Latin grammar course for all ages, but designed for students as young as 3rd grade. Vocabulary, systematic grammar, practice exercises, and Latin sayings are featured in each lesson. Prayers, songs, history lessons, and games are also included to add interest and motivation. The teacher manual includes detailed lesson plans, texts, weekly quizzes and keys. Student book, teacher manual, and pronunciation tape or CD are included. Each one-year course is designed for use by parents and teachers with no Latin background"--Page [4] of teacher manual and student book cover. This concise text is a survival manual especially designed to assist readers in navigating the complicated rules for legal citation found in The Bluebook. Effectively utilizing a simple building block approach for each source type, together with hundreds of easy-to-follow illustrations and explanations, the guide gives step-by-step instructions for building citations to the most common authorities cited by legal practitioners. Comparison charts, illustrations, and bullet-point explanations allow users to quickly understand critical citation rules, while frequent tips, hints, and cautions alert students to common trouble spots. Every essential rule and sub-rule is illustrated and fully described in a user-friendly format. This highly accessible guide is an indispensable tool for anyone wanting to master Bluebook citation. English File Advanced Student's Book is suitable for CEFR level C1 English File, third edition, provides a balance of grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation and skills to give students the right mix of language and motivation to get them talking. With lively lessons and engaging topics, classes are enjoyable and provide opportunity for students to practise and improve. Support for teachers includes a Teacher's Book with over 100 photocopiables along with extra tips and ideas. The Classroom Presentation Tool brings your classroom to life with the Student's Book and Workbook on-screen and interactive. Written with the goal of stirring the interest and imagination of the students who will read it, the World Studies (4th ed.) student text provides a chronological narrative of world history that should reveal the hand of God at work in the nations, beginning with the birth of the Church, the rise of Islam, and a survey of nations around the world from 1,000 A.D. to the present. Carefully chosen photos, maps, art, and margin boxes enhance the student's learning experience and spark interest for further study. - Publisher. New Interchange is a multi-level series for adult and young-adult learners of English from the beginning to the high-intermediate level. The Level 1 Student's Book builds on the foundations established in the Intro for accurate and fluent communication, extending grammatical, lexical, and functional skills. Beautiful color photographs and illustrations facilitate the teaching of new vocabulary. The New Interchange series teaches students to use English for everyday situations and purposes related to school, work, social life, and leisure. As with the other levels of New Interchange, a complete set of ancillaries, including a video program, is available to make classes interesting and productive. Student Services updates the best-selling first edition to provide student services professionals with the comprehensive information they need to successfully plan, coordinate, deliver, and evaluate student services programs. It includes new chapters that cover such increasingly important topics as legal issues, ethics and standards, and outcomes assessment. High school students, two-year college students, and university students all need to know how to write a well-reasoned, coherent research paper—and for decades Kate Turabian's Student's Guide to Writing College Papers has helped them to develop this critical skill. In the new fourth edition of Turabian's popular guide, the team behind Chicago's widely respected The Craft of Research has reconceived and renewed this classic for today's generation. Designed for less advanced writers than Turabian's Manual of Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, Seventh Edition, Gregory G. Colomb and Joseph M. Williams here introduce students to the art of defining a topic, doing high-quality research with limited resources, and writing an engaging and solid college paper. The Student's Guide is organized into three sections that lead students through the process of developing and revising a paper. Part 1, "Writing Your Paper," guides students through the research process with discussions of choosing and developing a topic, validating sources, planning arguments, writing drafts, avoiding plagiarism, and presenting evidence in tables and figures. Part 2, "Citing Sources," begins with a succinct introduction to why citation is important and includes sections on the three major styles students might encounter in their work—Chicago, MLA, and APA—all with full coverage of electronic source citation. Part 3, "Style," covers all matters of style important to writers of college papers, from punctuation to spelling to presenting titles, names, and numbers. With the authority and clarity long associated with the name Turabian, the fourth edition of Student's Guide to Writing College Papers is both a solid introduction to the research process and a convenient handbook to the best practices of writing college papers. Classroom tested and filled with relevant examples and tips, this is a reference that students, and their teachers, will turn to again and again. Statistics is written in clear, everyday language, without the equations that sometimes baffle non-mathematical readers. The goal is teaching students how to think about statistical issues. A humorous, no-holds barred examination of the content of student publications, the fourth edition of best-selling text "The Radical Write" suggests alternatives to the content clichés that dominate high school journalism. Reporting and writing for all student media is covered. For more than 20 years, The Radical Write has been the textbook of choice for advisers, student reporters and editors. Its message is simple: To survive, publications must provide essential information, and to do that, they must tell readers something new and interesting. This message is as important for newspapers as it is for yearbooks, online, broadcast and literary non-fiction magazines. This student activity book accompanies BJU Press' sold-separately World History Student Text, 4th Edition. Helping to reinforce concepts, people, and places from the text while developing reading skills, exercises are based upon maps and included primary document excerpts. Chapter review sections include short answer and multiple-choice questions. 268 perforated pages, softcover.
