The History and Political Transition of Zimbabwe Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Pedzisai Ruhanya, 2020-10-21 This book is the first to tackle the difficult and complex politics of transition in Zimbabwe with deep historical analysis Its focus is on a very problematic political culture that is proving very hard to transcend At the center of this culture is an unstable but resilient nationalist military alliance crafted during the anti colonial liberation struggle in the 1970s Inevitably violence misogyny and masculinity are constitutive of the political culture Economically speaking the culture is that of a bureaucratic parasitic primitive accumulation and corruption which include invasion and emptying of state coffers by a self styled Chimurenga aristocracy However this Chimurenga aristocracy is not cohesive as the politics that led to Robert Mugabe's ousting from power was preceded by dirty and protracted internal factionalism At the center of the factional politics was the first family Robert Mugabe and his wife Grace Mugabe This book offers a multidisciplinary examination of the complex contemporary politics in Zimbabwe taking seriously such issues as gender misogyny militarism violence media identity modes of accumulation the ethnicization of politics attempts to open lines of credit and FDI national healing and the national question as key variables not only of a complete political culture but also of difficult transitional politics Mugabeism? Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2015-12-26 What is distinctive about this book is its interdisciplinary approach towards deciphering the complex meanings of President Gabriel Mugabe of Zimbabwe making it possible to evaluate Mugabe from a historical political philosophical gender literal and decolonial perspectives It is concerned with capturing various meanings of Mugabeism history of southern Africa Its lively and accessible approach will appeal to anyone with an interest in global history

Cultures of Change in Contemporary Zimbabwe Oliver Nyambi, Tendai Mangena, Gibson Ncube, 2021-11-04 This book investigates how culture reflects change in Zimbabwe focusing predominantly on Mnangagwa's 2017 coup but also uncovering deeper roots for how renewal and transition are conceived in the country Since Emmerson Mnangagwa ousted Robert Mugabe in 2017 he has been keen to define his Second Republic or New Dispensation with a rhetoric of change and a rejection of past political and economic cultures This multi and inter disciplinary volume looks to the social media language discourse theatre images political speeches and literary fiction and non fiction to see how they have reflected on this time of unprecedented upheaval The book argues that themes of self renewal stretch right back to the formative years of the ZANU PF and that despite the longevity of Mugabe's tenure the latest transition can be seen as part of a complex and protracted layering of postcolonial social economic and political changes Providing an innovative investigation of how political change in Zimbabwe is reflected on in cultural texts and products this book will be of interest to researchers across African history literature politics culture and post colonial studies

The Politics of the Dead in Zimbabwe, 2000-2020 Joost Fontein, 2022 Innovative and challenging study that provides fresh insights on the anthropology of death and postcolonial politics In 1898 just before she was hanged for rebelling against colonial rule Charwe Nyakasikana spirit medium of the legendary ancestor Ambuya Nehanda famously prophesised that my bones will rise again A century later bones bodies and human remains have come to occupy an increasingly complex place in Zimbabwe's postcolonial milieu From ancestral bones rising again in the struggle for independence and later land to resurfacing bones of unsettled wardead and from the troubling decaying remains of post independence gukurahundi massacres to the leaky tortured bodies of recent election violence human materials are intertwined in postcolonial politics in ways that go far beyond yet necessarily implicate contests over memory commemoration and the representation of the past In this book Joost Fontein examines the complexities of human remains in Zimbabwe's politics of the dead Challenging and innovative he takes us beyond current scholarship on memory commemoration and the changing significance of traditional death practices to examine the political implications of human remains as material substances as duplicitous rumours and as returning spirits Linking the indeterminacy of human substances to the productive but precarious uncertainties of rumours and spirits the book points to how the incompleteness

Integral Green Zimbabwe Elizabeth Mamukwa, Ronnie Lessem, Alexander Schieffer, 2016-05-23 Integral Green Zimbabwe An African Phoenix Rising by Ronnie Lessem Alexander Schieffer and Liz Mamukwa is the first book in the Integral Green Society and Economy series a series which has three overarching aims The first aim is to link together two major movements of our time one philosophical the other practical The philosophical movement is towards what many today are calling an integral age while the practical is the green movement duly aligned with that of sustainable development The second is to blend together elements of nature and community culture and spirituality science and technology politics and economics thus serving to bring about an integral green vision albeit with a focus on business and economics As such the authors transcend the limitations to sustainable development and environmental economics which are overly ecological if not also technological in orientation and exclude social and cultural elements Thirdly this particular volume focuses specifically on Zimbabwe as well as Southern Africa drawing on the particular issues and capacities that this country and region represents The emphasis on Zimbabwe and

Southern Africa transpired not only because two of the editors Lessem and Mamukwa are Zimbabwean in origin but because Zimbabwe is today like a phoenix rising from the ashes and has the opportunity to recreate itself anew Joshua Mqabuko Nkomo of Zimbabwe Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2017-08-17 This book is a pioneering study of Joshua Mqabuko Nkomo a Zimbabwean nationalist whose crucial role in the country's anti colonial struggle has largely gone unrecognized These essays trace his early influence on Zimbabwean nationalism in the late 1950s and his leadership in the armed liberation movement and postcolonial national building processes as well as his denigration by the winners of the 1980 elections Mugabe's Zimbabwe African National Union Patriotic Front The Nkomo that emerges is complex and contested the embodiment of Zimbabwe's tortured trajectory from colony to independent postcolonial state This is an essential corrective to the standard history of twentieth century Zimbabwe and an invaluable resource for scholars of African nationalist liberation movements and nation building

Labour and Economic Change in Southern Africa c.1900-2000 Rory Pilosof, Andrew Cohen, 2021-06-03 This book explores the social and economic development of Zimbabwe Zambia and Malawi over the course of the twentieth century These three countries have long shared and interconnected pasts All three were drawn into the British Empire at a similar time and the formation of the ill fated Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland formally linked these countries together for a decade in the mid twentieth century This formal political relationship created dynamics that resulted in yet closer economic and social links After Federation the economic realities of industry transport and labour supplies meant that these three countries continued to be intricately interconnected Yet despite these connected pasts comparative work on the economic histories of Malawi Zambia and Zimbabwe and how these change over time is rare This book addresses the gap by providing the first comprehensive collection of labour and census data across the twentieth century for these three countries The different economic models and performances of these states offer good comparison allowing researchers to look at different models of development and how these played out over the long term The book provides data on population growth and change industrial and occupational structure and the various shifts in what the economically active population did It will be useful for historians economists development studies scholars and non governmental organisations working on twentieth century and contemporary southern Africa

Education and Development in Zimbabwe Edward Shizha, Michael T. Kariwo, 2012-01-01 The book represents a contribution to policy formulation and design in an increasingly knowledge economy in Zimbabwe It challenges scholars to think about the role of education its funding and the egalitarian approach to widening access to education The nexus between education democracy and policy change is a complex one The book provides an illuminating account of the constantly evolving notions of national identity language and citizenship from the Zimbabwean experience The book discusses educational successes and challenges by examining the ideological effects of social political and economic considerations on Zimbabwe's colonial and postcolonial education Currently literature on current educational challenges in Zimbabwe is lacking and there is very little published material on these ideological effects on educational development in Zimbabwe This book is likely to be one of the first on the impact of social political and economic meltdown on education The book is targeted at local and international academics and scholars of history of education and comparative education scholars of international education and development undergraduate and graduate students and professors who are interested in educational development in Africa particularly Zimbabwe Notwithstanding the book is a valuable resource to policy makers educational administrators and researchers and the wider community Shizha and Kariwo s book is an important and illuminating addition on the effects of social political and economic trajectories on education and development in Zimbabwe It critically analyses the crucial specifics of the Zimbabwean situation by providing an in depth discourse on education at this historical juncture The book offers new insights that may be useful for an understanding of not only the Zimbabwean case but also education in other African countries Rosemary Gordon Senior Lecturer in Educational Foundations University of Zimbabwe Ranging in temporal scope from the colonial era and its elitist legacy through the golden era of populist universal elementary education to the disarray of contemporary socioeconomic crisis covering elementary through higher education and touching thematically on everything from the pernicious effects of social adjustment programmes through the local deprofessionalization of teaching this text provides a comprehensive wide ranging and yet carefully detailed account of education in Zimbabwe This engagingly written portrayal will prove illuminating not only to readers interested in Zimbabwe s education specifically but more widely to all who are interested in how the sociopolitical shapes education how ideology policy international pressures economic factors and shifts in values collectively forge the historical and contemporary character of a country s education Handel Kashope Wright Professor of Education University of British Columbia Teaching African History in Schools, 2020-11-04 Emerging from the pioneering work of the African Association for History Education AHE Afrika Teaching African History in Schools offers an original Africa centred contribution to existing research and debates in the international field of history education The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Imperialism and Anti-Imperialism Immanuel Ness, Zak Cope, 2016-04-29 The Palgrave Encyclopedia Imperialism and Anti Imperialism objectively presents the prominent themes epochal events theoretical explanations and historical accounts of imperialism from 1776 to the present It is the most historically and academically comprehensive examination of the subject to date Post-colonial struggles for a democratic Southern Africa Carolyn Bassett, Marlea Clarke, 2017-06-26 National liberation one of the grand narratives of the twentieth century has left a weighty legacy of unfulfilled dreams This book explores the ongoing struggle for legitimate accountable political leaders in postcolonial Southern Africa focussing on dilemmas arising when ex liberation movements form the governments While the spread of multi party democracy to most countries in the region is to be celebrated democratic practice often has been superficial a limited elitist politics that relies on the symbols of the liberation struggle to legitimate de facto one party rule and authoritarian practices Using country cases from Tanzania Swaziland Zimbabwe South Africa and Zambia the collection explores three subthemes relevant to postcolonial governance in Southern Africa how the struggle for liberation shapes the character of political transformation the nature of rule in one party dominant states headed by former liberation movements and the processes of governance and resistance in post liberation contexts This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary African Studies Empire, Global Coloniality and African Subjectivity Sabelo J.

Ndlovu-Gatsheni,2013-06-01 Global imperial designs which have been in place since conquest by western powers did not suddenly evaporate after decolonization Global coloniality as a leitmotif of the empire became the order of the day with its invisible technologies of subjugation continuing to reproduce Africa s subaltern position a position characterized by perceived deficits ranging from a lack of civilization a lack of writing and a lack of history to a lack of development a lack of human rights and a lack of democracy The author s sharply critical perspective reveals how this epistemology of alterity has kept Africa ensnared within colonial matrices of power serving to justify external interventions in African affairs including the interference with liberation struggles and disregard for African positions Evaluating the quality of African responses and available options the author opens up a new horizon that includes cognitive justice and new humanism Fast Track Land

Occupations in Zimbabwe Kirk Helliker,Sandra Bhatasara,Manase Kudzai Chiweshe,2021-01-11 This book offers the first detailed scholarly examination of the nation wide land occupations which spread across the Zimbabwean countryside from the year 2000 and led to the state s fast track land reform programme In an innovative way it highlights the decentralized character of the occupations by recognizing significant spatial variation around a number of key themes including historical memory modes of mobilization and gender A case study of the land occupations in Mashonaland Central Province based on original research adds empirical weight to the argument In further identifying and understanding the specificities and complexities of the land occupations the book also frames them by way of a nuanced comparative historical analysis of the three zvimurenga It thus examines the land occupations referred to likely controversially as the third chimurenga with reference to the original anti colonial revolt from the 1890s the first chimurenga and the war of liberation in the 1970s the second chimurenga Further the book engages critically with the ruling party s chimurenga narrative and the hegemonic understanding of the land occupations within Zimbabwean studies This book is a crucial read for all scholars and students of post 2000 land and politics in Zimbabwe but also for those more broadly interested in historical comparative analyses of land struggles in Zimbabwe and beyond

Land and Agrarian Reform in Zimbabwe Sam Moyo,Walter Chambati,2013-05-13 The Fast Track Land Reform Programme implemented during the 2000s in Zimbabwe represents the only instance of radical redistributive land reforms since the end of the Cold War It reversed the racially skewed agrarian structure and discriminatory land tenures inherited from colonial rule The land reform also radicalised the state towards a nationalist introverted accumulation strategy against a broad array of unilateral Western sanctions Indeed Zimbabwes land reform in its social and political dynamics must be compared to the leading land reforms of the twentieth century which include those of Mexico Russia China Japan South Korea Taiwan Cuba and Mozambique The fact that the Zimbabwe case has not been recognised as vanguard nationalism has much to do with the intellectual structural adjustment which has accompanied neoliberalism and a hostile media campaign This has entailed dubious theories of neopatrimonialism which reduce African politics and the state to endemic corruption patronage and tribalism while overstating the virtues of neoliberal good governance Under this racist repertoire it has been impossible to see class politics mass mobilisation and resistance let alone believe that something progressive can occur in Africa This book comes to a conclusion that the Zimbabwe land reform represents a new form of resistance with distinct and innovative characteristics when compared to other cases of radicalisation reform and resistance The process of reform and resistance has entailed the deliberate creation of a tri modal agrarian structure to accommodate and balance the interests of various domestic classes the progressive restructuring of labour relations and agrarian markets the continuing pressures for radical reforms through the indigenisation of mining and other sectors and the rise of extensive albeit relatively weak producer cooperative structures The book also highlights some of the resonances between the Zimbabwean land struggles and those on the continent as well as in the South in general arguing that there are some convergences and divergences worthy of intellectual attention The book thus calls for greater endogenous empirical research which overcomes the pre occupation with failed interpretations of the nature of the state and agency in Africa

Marxism and Decolonization in the 21st Century Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Morgan Ndlovu, 2021-07-22 Marxism and Decolonization in the 21st Century is a ground breaking work that highlights the resurgence and insurgence of Marxism and decolonization and the ways in which decolonization and decoloniality are grounded in the contributions of Black Marxism the Radical Black tradition and anti colonial liberation traditions Featuring leading and young scholars and activists this book is a practical scholarly intervention that shows how democratic Marxism and decoloniality might converge to provoke planetary decolonization in the 21st century At the centre of this process enabled by both increasing human entanglements and the resilience of racism the volume s contributors analyse converging forces of anti imperialism anti colonialism anti patriarchy anti sexism Indigenous People s movements eco feminist formations and intellectual movements levelled against Eurocentrism This book will be of great interest to students scholars and intellectuals interested in Marxism decolonization and transnational activism

Why States Recover Greg Mills, 2015-01-03 State failure takes many forms Somalia offers one extreme The country s prolonged civil war led to the collapse of central authority with state control devolving to warlord led factions that competed for the spoils of local commerce political power and international aid Malawi on the other hand is at the other end of the scale During President Bingu s second term in office the country s economy collapsed as a result of poor policies and Bingu s brand of personal politics On the surface Malawi s economy seemed largely stable underneath however the polity was fractured and the economy broken In between these two extremes of state failure are all manner of examples many of which Mills explores in the fascinating and profoundly personal Why States Recover Throughout he returns to his key questions how do countries recover What roles should both insiders and outsiders play to aid that process Drawing on research in more than thirty countries and incorporating interviews with a dozen leaders Mills examines state failure and identifies instances of recovery in Latin America Asia and Africa For anyone interested in the reasons behind states failure and remedies to ensure future economic stability it is important reading An African Volk Jamie Miller, 2016-09-20 The demise of apartheid was one of the great achievements of postwar history sought after and celebrated by a progressive global community Looking at these events from the other side An African Volk explores how the apartheid state strove to maintain power as the world of white empire gave way to a post colonial environment that repudiated racial hierarchy Drawing upon archival research across Southern Africa and beyond as well as interviews with leaders of the apartheid order Jamie Miller shows how the white power structure attempted to turn the new political climate to its advantage Instead of simply resisting decolonization and African nationalism in the name of white supremacy the regime looked to co opt and invert the norms of the new global era to promote a fresh ideological basis for its rule It adapted discourses of nativist identity African anti colonialism economic development anti communism and state sovereignty to rearticulate what it meant to be African An African Volk details both the global and local repercussions At the dawn of the 1970s the apartheid state reached out eagerly to independent Africa in an effort to reject the mantle of colonialism and redefine the white polity as a full part of the post colonial world This outreach both reflected and fuelled heated debates within white society exposing a deeply divided polity in the midst of profound economic cultural and social change Situated at the nexus of African decolonization and Cold War history An African Volk takes readers into the corridors of white power to detail the apartheid regime s campaign to break out of isolation and secure global acceptance
