Wiseman, 2021-04-22 This book examines the discourses on nation building civic identity minorities and the formation of religious identities in school textbooks worldwide It offers up to date practical and scholarly information on qualitative and mixed method textbook analysis as well as the broader context of critical comparative textbook and curriculum analyses in and across selected countries The volume offers unique and empirical research on how internal educational policies and ideological goals of dominant social political and economic groups affect textbook production and the curricular aims in different educational systems worldwide Chapters address the role of school textbooks in developing nationhood the creation of citizenship through school textbooks the complexity of gender in normative discourses and the intersection of religion and culture in school textbooks The American Glaucoma Society M. Bruce Shields, George L. Spaeth, 2010 The Future We Need Erica Smiley, Sarita Gupta, 2022-04-15 In The Future We Need Erica Smiley and Sarita Gupta bring a novel perspective to building worker power and what labor organizing could look like in the future suggesting ways to evolve collective bargaining to match the needs of modern people not only changing their wages and working conditions but being able to govern over more aspects of their lives Weaving together stories of real working people Smiley and Gupta position the struggle to build collective bargaining power as a central element in the effort to build a healthy democracy and explore both existing levers of power and new ones

we must build for workers to have the ability to negotiate in today and tomorrow's contexts The Future We Need illustrates the necessity of centralizing the fight against white supremacy and gender discrimination while offering paths forward to harness the power of collective bargaining in every area for a new era Genealogist's Address Book, 6th Edition
