Beyond New Media Art Herbig, Andrew F. Herrmann, Adam W. Tyma, 2014-11-14 Beyond New Media Discourse and Critique in a Polymediated Age examines a host of differing positions on media in order to explore how those positions can inform one another and build a basis for future engagements with media theory research and practice Herbig Herrmann and Tyma have brought together a number of media scholars with differing paradigmatic backgrounds to debate the relative applicability of existing theories and in doing so develop a new approach to polymediation Each contributor's disciplinary background is diverse spanning interpersonal communication media studies organizational communication instructional design rhetoric mass communication gender studies popular culture studies informatics and persuasion Although each of these scholars brings with them a unique perspective on media's role in people's lives what binds them together is the belief that meaningful discourse about media must be an ongoing conversation that is open to critique and revision in a rapidly changing mediated culture By studying media in a polymediated way Beyond New Media addresses more completely our complex relationship to media in our everyday lives

I Murdered Your Mother, I Think? Robert Beckstedt, 2018-11-30 Maria the nurse and nanny invoking Haitian Voodoo to protect those she loves from her damaged violent sister Andrea And Michael the wealthy man between them fighting desperately to save his baby son and escape with the sister he truly loves This exhilarating saga of love and revenge sweeps us from Hispaniola in 1916 where the sisters family originated in poverty and slavery to the lurking drug culture of Balboa Panama and finally to the United States The ripples of the sisters family history spread insidiously and threaten all that Michael has built Will the Voodoo that was meant to protect save them Or will it finally bring disaster upon Michael Maria and everything they love
