The modern world's structures are changing rapidly as new problems arise from advances in science and technology. Man's mind is unable to keep pace with the movement he has himself set in motion and the unsolvable problems that confront him, yet he aspires to self-mastery, perfection, peace, beauty, and love. What is the meaning of terrestrial life and the present evolutionary crisis? This anthology compiled from Sri Aurobindo's The Life Divine, The Synthesis of Yoga, and The Human Cycle deals with this crucial question, tracing the past and pointing to the future of human evolution, both individual and social. Deliberation on The Life Divine Volume III "Deliberations on The Life Divine", Volume 3, deals with the most original contribution of Sri Aurobindo's Integral philosophy: the Supermind. How can we define Supermind? What is its nature? How is it involved with the world-existence? What is its ontological position in the hierarchy of the levels of consciousness? What is the difference between Mind and the Supermind? The present volume offers explicit answers to all these questions as dealt by Sri Aurobindo in his grand philosophic synthesis—The Life Divine. We seek external solutions that always fail. The true solution is to look within and know thyself as the sages have proclaimed. The Future Evolution of Man is a focused, step-by-step review of Sri Aurobindo's writings on this subject with extracts from The Life Divine, The Synthesis of Yoga and The Human Cycle. This text acts as a guidebook to the evolutionary process and its potential for solving our existential crisis in the world today. This series of lectures delivered in 1988 begins with an introduction to the overall vision and integral nature of Sri Aurobindo's approach to the problems of existence. The author then selects a few topics from Sri Aurobindo's The Life Divine and presents them from both the theoretical and practical perspectives. These lectures deal with the various theories of creation, the philosophy of evolution, an explanation of rebirth, the nature of ignorance, the process of transformation, and some characteristics of a gnostic society. Question-and-answer sections follow each lecture. 'The Life Divine' by Sri Aurobindo. It's a major philosophical work of Sri Aurobindo. Sri Aurobindo presents a theory of evolution, which will culminate in the transformation of the human being and the advent of a divine life upon earth. Readings in Sri Aurobindo's The Life Divine Volume 2 There is probably no other book [Sri Aurobindo's The Life Divine] that I know of which so well, completely, rationally and intuitively addresses the questions of our existence and the meaning of life, and provides a cogent answer rooted in the highest spiritual realization and yogic experience that can be adapted by all, regardless of their particular background or inclinations. Santosh Krinsky, a life long student of Sri Aurobindo, with great devotion, dedication and attention has served this crucial role of providing a bridge to help us enter more deeply into the vast universe of consciousness that Aurobindo holds open for humanity today. He leads the reader through each page of The Life Divine by extracting its essence. In this way, he makes the book easier to access, with no loss of its broader meaning. - from the Foreword by Dr. David Frawley, author of Yoga and Ayurveda Growth Online author and founder Roy Posner presents a chapter-by-chapter analysis of Sri Aurobindo's metaphysical treatise The Life Divine, perhaps the most profound book ever written on the nature of spirit, creation, life, evolution, and human potential. 'The Hour Of God' by Sri Aurobindo. A collection of short stories pieces on some of the principal concepts of Sri Aurobindo's philosophy and yoga. Sri Aurobindo writes "The Tantric system is in its aspiration one of the greatest attempts yet made to embrace the whole of God manifested & unmanifested in the adoration, self-discipline & knowledge of a single human soul". This compilation from Sri Aurobindo's writings focuses on a remarkable though grossly misunderstood Yogic system, the Tantra. Readings in Sri Aurobindo's The Life Divine Volume 3 There is probably no other book [Sri Aurobindo's The Life Divine] that I know of which so well, completely, rationally and intuitively addresses the questions of our existence and the meaning of life, and provides a cogent answer rooted in the highest spiritual realization and yogic experience that can be adapted by all, regardless of their particular background or inclinations. Santosh Krinsky, a life long student of Sri Aurobindo, with great devotion, dedication and attention has served this crucial role of providing a bridge to help us enter more deeply into the vast universe of consciousness that Aurobindo holds open for humanity today. He leads the reader through each page of The Life Divine by extracting its essence. In this way, he makes the book easier to access, with no loss of its broader meaning." - from the Foreword by Dr. David Frawley, author of Yoga and Ayurveda This is a new release of the original 1951 edition. This book a collection of fourteen lectures delivered in the U.S.A. in 1962. In these lectures the author presents the major philosophical premises of the first Book of The Life Divine, beginning with a study of the human aspiration towards perfection and concluding with an elucidation of the Overmind consciousness. Each lecture is followed by a short question and answer session with members of the study group. Important small work dealing with the action of the Divine powers in the world and practice of yoga of Sri Aurobindo. Revelatory, inspired writing, frequently called the "Matri Upanishad." Sri Aurobindo's magnum opus, The Life Divine, is considered to be one of the premier philosophical expositions, covering the meaning and significance of human life, the role of the individual and the structure and operation of the universal creation. In its more than 1000 pages, a wide variety of themes and subjects have been covered. Sri M.P. Pandit was secretary to the Mother of the Sri Aurobindo Ashram and a long-time disciple, prolific author and exponent of Sri Aurobindo's teachings. These talks were given to introduce various topics covered in The Life Divine, during the year 1977 at the author's residence. Sri Aurobindo (1872-1950), A Pioneer Of India's Freedom Movement, Poet, Seer And The Exponent Of Integral Yoga, Visualises The Possibility Of Humanity Fulfilling Its Evolutionary Destiny Through A Process Of Transformation. All The Works Of Sri Aurobindo, His Reflections On Aspects Of Culture And Education Have Been Included Here, To Introduce His Profound Vision To The Reader. A word-concordance of 'The Life Divine' generated by computer. Sri Aurobindo represents a synthesis of the teachings of both the West and the East. Not content simply with dissolution into a transcendental, other-worldly God-consciousness, nor with concentration on the outer life and its powers to the exclusion of anything other or higher, Sri Aurobindo has created the teachings of a Divine Life on Earth. This is the second book of the series. 'Bases Of Yoga' by Sri Aurobindo. Excellent introduction to the practice of Integral Yoga. In this collection of 156 extracts from letters to disciples, Sri Aurobindo explains the central principles and practices of his integral Yoga and sheds light on problems that confront the spiritual seeker. The extracts are organised under headings such as calm, peace, and equality; faith, aspiration, and surrender; desire, food, and sex; and the physical consciousness, the subconscious, sleep and dreams, and illness. In this epic spiritual poem, Sri Aurobindo reveals his vision of mankind's destiny within the universal evolution. He sets forth the optimistic view that life on earth has a purpose, and he places our travail within the context of this purpose: to participate in the evolution of consciousness that represents the secret thread behind life on Earth. This compilation discusses the nature of faith, its importance, different forms of faith and their working. Study on the philosophy of the Indian philosopher Aurobindo Ghose, 1872-1950. In his Life Divine, Sri Aurobindo cites passages from the scriptures at the head of each chapter. An attempt is made in these pages to explain to the reader to follow the argument with more understanding. "A Lindisfarne book." Bibliography: p. 377-381. Philosophical essays chiefly on yoga. "The pieces collected together in this book were written by Sri Aurobindo between 1910 and 1940. None of them were published during his lifetime; none received the final revision he gave to his major works. Most of the pieces were first printed in various journals published by the Ashram, and subsequently in the different editions of The Hour of God, beginning with the first edition (1959)." In reading these essays, one gets the very distinct feeling that the author really does know whereof he speaks. Here, we are able to sit in his lap and listen as he fabricates one description after another of the ineffable and explains how we too can share in the realization awaiting us at the end of what seems, in the clarity of his vision, to be not such an arduous path. It is not that he ever says that the way is easy, quite the contrary; but the certainty with which he speaks seems to put it into reach. This book contains many discourses by the author, renamed Navajata by the Mother, on the sadhana of Sri Aurobindo's Integral Yoga: how can we make our life more perfect; what is the highest an individual can do; how can the whole world be happy, how can yoga be practised at each moment of one's life; can destiny be changed, can death be conquered – how can one attain a divine life in a divine body.
