All Children Matter

Children Matter Scottie May, Beth Posterski, Catherine Stonehouse, 2005-08-31 Explores how the church can better minister to children inside and outside of the Christian education classroom Draws on the Bible psychology and the authors experience in various Protestant traditions

Why Children Matter Douglas Wilson, Nancy Wilson, 2018-07-10 In the Garden of Eden there was only one No Everything else was Yes In this short book on Christian childrearing Douglas Wilson points out that we have a Father who delights in us and makes it easy for us to love and obey him If that is the kind of Father we have shouldn't we earthly parents do the same Wilson explains how parents should not just try to get their kids to obey a set of rules or to make their house so fun that following the rules is always easy Instead he calls for parents to instill in their kids a love for God and His standards that will serve them well all their days This book also features an appendix in which Doug and his wife Nancy answer various parents questions about various applications of the principles discussed in this book

Why Children Matter Johann Christoph Arnold, 2012 Raising a child has never been more challenging If you ever doubt yourself or wonder if it is worth the heartache read this little book If you worry that your family will not weather life's storms or if you fear losing your children to the prevailing culture read it again Why Children Matter offers biblical wisdom and commonsense advice on how to hold a family together and raise children with character Johann Christoph Arnold a father grandfather and pastor has written eleven books including three on parenting and children's education As the fabric of family and society is torn apart this book offers up concrete steps to encourage parents faced with difficult child rearing decisions

The Orange Shirt Story Phyllis Webstad, 2018 When Phyllis Webstad nee Jack turned six she went to residential school for the first time On her first day at school she wore a shiny orange shirt that her granny had bought for her but when she got to the school it was taken away from her and never returned This is the true story of Phyllis and her orange shirt It is also the story of Orange Shirt Day an important day of remembrance for Indigenous people and all Canadians

Parenting Matters National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Children, Youth, and Families, Committee on Supporting the Parents of Young Children, 2016-11-21 Decades of research have demonstrated that the parent child dyad and the environment of the family which includes all primary caregivers are at the foundation of children's well being and healthy development From birth children are learning and rely on parents and the other caregivers in their lives to protect and care for them The impact of parents may never be greater than during the earliest years of life when a child's brain is rapidly developing and when nearly all of her or his experiences are created and shaped by parents and the family environment Parents help children build and refine their knowledge and skills charting a trajectory for their health and well being during childhood and beyond The experience of parenting also impacts parents themselves For instance parenting can enrich and give focus to parents lives generate stress or calm and create any number of emotions including feelings of happiness sadness fulfillment and anger Parenting of young children today takes place in the context of significant ongoing developments These include a rapidly growing body of science on early childhood increases in funding for programs and services for families changing demographics of the U S population and greater diversity of family structure Additionally parenting is increasingly being shaped by technology and increased access to information about parenting Parenting Matters identifies parenting knowledge attitudes and practices associated with positive developmental outcomes in children ages 0 8 universal preventive and targeted strategies used in a variety of settings that have been effective with parents of young children and that support the identified knowledge attitudes and practices and barriers to and facilitators for parents use of practices that lead to healthy child outcomes as well as their participation in effective programs and services This report makes recommendations directed at an array of stakeholders for promoting the wide scale adoption of effective programs and services for parents and on areas that warrant further research to inform policy and practice It is meant to serve as a roadmap for the future of parenting policy research and practice in the United States
