The Caliph's House A Year In Casablanca Tahir Shah

The Caliph's House Tahir Shah,2007 By turns hilarious and harrowing this work by an acclaimed English travel writer is the story of his family's move from the gray skies of London to the sun-drenched city of Casablanca where Islamic tradition and African folklore converge and nothing is as easy as it seems

The Caliph's House Tahir Shah,2006-01-31 In the tradition of A Year in Provence and Under the Tuscan Sun acclaimed English travel writer Tahir Shah shares a highly entertaining account of making an exotic dream come true By turns hilarious and harrowing here is the story of his family's move from the gray skies of London to the sun-drenched city of Casablanca where Islamic tradition and African folklore converge and nothing is as easy as it seems Inspired by the Moroccan vacations of his childhood Tahir Shah dreamed of making a home in that astonishing country At age thirty-six he got his chance Investing what money he and his wife Rachana had Tahir packed up his growing family and bought Dar Khalifa a crumbling ruin of a mansion by the sea in Casablanca that once belonged to the city's caliph or spiritual leader With its lush grounds cool secluded courtyards and relaxed pace life at Dar Khalifa seems sure to fulfill Tahir's fantasy until he discovers that in many ways he is farther from home than he imagined For in Morocco an empty house is thought to attract jinns invisible spirits unique to the Islamic world The ardent belief in their presence greatly hampers sleep and renovation plans but that is just the beginning From elaborate exorcism rituals involving sacrificial goats to dealing with gangster neighbors intent on stealing their property the Shahs must cope with a new culture and all that comes with it Endlessly enthralling The Caliph's House charts a year in the life of one family who takes a tremendous gamble As we follow Tahir on his travels throughout the kingdom from Tangier to Marrakech to the Sahara we discover a world of fierce contrasts that any true adventurer would be thrilled to call home

Sorcerer's Apprentice Tahir Shah,2011-07 Tahir Shah has a genius for surreal travelling finding or creating situations and people Doris

The Forgotten Queens of Islam Fatima Mernissi,1993 Mernissi recounts the extraordinary stories of fifteen queens and reflects on the implications for the ways in which politics is practiced in Islam today a world in which women are largely excluded from the political domain

Enid Blyton, and Her Enchantment with Dorset Andrew Norman,2005 Enid Blyton first visited Dorset at Easter 1931 with her husband Hugh Pollock she was aged 34 and pregnant with her first child She would later return to spend many holidays in and around the town of Swanage in South Dorset's Isle of Purbeck together with her two daughters Gillian born 1931 and Imogen born 1935 and later with her second husband Kenneth Darrell Waters What was it about this particular region that would draw her back time and time again and what pursuits did she choose to follow whilst she was here In order to find out we accompany Enid as she walks swims off Swanage beach plays golf takes the steam train to Corfe Castle and the paddle steamer to Bournemouth Although Enid s stories were drawn from her imagination this itself was fed and nurtured by external experiences in the case of the Famous Five books largely by what she had seen in Dorset Whereas it is probably futile to attempt to match a specific real life location with her fictitious ones nevertheless it is a fascinating exercise to retrace her steps and having done so to reflect on those topographical features which might have impinged upon her subconscious or what she called her under mind whilst she was writing the stories It is often the case that when an author bases his work on a certain place the subsequent discovery by the reader of that place s true identity may come as a disappointment Not so in this case for the real life locations are equally as interesting and exciting as the nail biting adventures of The Famous Five themselves

In Arabian Nights Tahir Shah,2007-12-26 Tahir Shah s The Caliph s House describing his first year in Casablanca was hailed by critics and compared to such travel classics as A Year in Provence and Under the Tuscan Sun Now Shah takes us deeper into the heart of this exotic and magical land to uncover mysteries that have been hidden from Western eyes for centuries In this entertaining and penetrating book Tahir sets out on a bold new journey across Morocco that becomes an adventure worthy of the mythical Arabian Nights As he wends his way through the labyrinthine medinas of Fez and Marrakesh traverses the Sahara sands and tastes the hospitality of ordinary Moroccans Tahir collects a dazzling treasury of traditional stories gleaned from the heritage of A Thousand and One Nights The tales recounted by a vivid cast of characters reveal fragments of wisdom and an oriental way of thinking that is both enthralling and fresh A link in the chain of scholars and teachers who have passed these stories down for centuries like a baton in a relay race Shah reaches layers of culture that most visitors hardly realize exist and eventually discovers the story living in his own heart Along the way he describes the colors characters and the passion of Morocco and comes to understand why it is such an enchanting land From master masons who labor only at night to Sufi wise men who write for soap operas and Tuareg guides afflicted by reality TV In Arabian Nights takes us on an unforgettable journey shining a light on facets of a society that are normally left in darkness

TIMBUCTOO Tahir Shah,2012-06-22 For centuries Europe s great explorers were sent out to find Timbuctoo a city supposedly built from pure gold Most of them never returned alive At the height of the Timbuctoo Mania 200 years ago an illiterate American sailor was found on the streets of snowbound London claiming to have been taken there as a white slave

Rooftops of Tehran Mahbod Seraji,2009-05-05 From a striking new talent Sandra Dallas author of Tallgrass comes an unforgettable debut novel of young love and coming of age in an Iran headed toward revolution In this poignant eye opening and emotionally vivid novel Mahbod Seraji lays bare the beauty and brutality of the centuries old Persian culture while reaffirming the human experiences we all share In a middle class neighborhood of Iran s sprawling capital city 17 year old Pasha Shahed spends the summer of 1973 on his rooftop with his best friend Ahmed joking around one minute and asking burning questions about life the next He also hides a secret love for his beautiful neighbor Zari who has been betrothed since birth to another man But the bliss of Pasha and Zari s stolen time together is shattered when Pasha unwittingly acts as a beacon for the Shah's secret police. The violent consequences awaken him to the reality of living under a powerful despot and lead Zari to make a shocking choice. Terrorism in the Maghreb Anneli Botha, 2008. Terrorism on the African continent is a complex and emotional topic. One of the primary reasons for this is that a historical introspection for any country or its people that has been confronted with a conflicting past can only be described as sensitive. In addition to international developments and challenges, domestic circumstances predominately fuel domestic terrorism. It will therefore be a mistake to assess the threat of terrorism in any country in historic isolation. This is particularly true when one tries to assess and understand the renewed threat of terrorism in Algeria, Morocco, and Tunisia. This monograph will attempt to place the threat and implication of the name change announcement of the Salafist Group for Combat and Preaching (GSPC) to al Qaeda in the Land of the Islamic Maghreb (AQIM) in context with the primary focus on events in 2007. The name change in itself implied that the original domestic group had transnational ambitions, but what influenced this development and what would the consequences be? Although this development led to immediate and extensive international interest in the Maghreb, it became clear that most assessments focused on the now without appreciating the historical complexities that ultimately led to this development. Remembrance Of Things Past: Vol 1 Marcel Proust, 2017-02-28. One of the greatest translations of all time, Scott Moncrieff's classic version of Proust published in three stunning clothbound volumes designed by Coralie Bickford Smith. Proust's masterpiece is one of the seminal works of the twentieth century, recording its narrator's experiences as he grows up, falls in love, and lives through the First World War. A profound reflection on art, time, memory, self, and loss, it is often viewed as the definitive modern novel. C. K. Scott Moncrieff's famous translation from the 1920s is today regarded as a classic in its own right and is now available in three volumes in Penguin Classics. This first volume includes Swann's Way and Within a Budding Grove. Scott Moncrieff's volumes belong to that special category of translations which are themselves literary masterpieces; his book is one of those translations such as the Authorized Version of the Bible itself which can never be displaced. A. N. Wilson. For the reader wishing to tackle Proust, your guide must be C. K. Scott Moncrieff. There are some who believe his headily perfumed translation of la recherche du temps perdu conjures Belle époque France more vividly even than the original. Telegraph. I was more interested and fascinated by your rendering than by Proust's creation. Joseph Conrad to Scott Moncrieff. A House in Fez Suzanna Clarke, 2009-12-01. The Medina, the Old City of Fez, is the best preserved medieval walled city in the world. Inside this vibrant Moroccan community, internet cafes and mobile phones coexist with a maze of donkey-trod alleyways, thousand-year-old sewer systems, and Arab-style houses, gorgeous with intricate, if often shabby, mosaic work. While vacationing in Morocco, Suzanna Clarke and her husband Sandy are inspired to buy a dilapidated, centuries-old riad in Fez with the aim of restoring it to its original splendor using only traditional craftsmen and handmade materials. So begins a remarkable adventure that is bewildering at times, hilarious, and ultimately immensely rewarding. A House in Fez chronicles their meticulous restoration, but it is also a journey into Moroccan customs and lore and a window into the lives of its people as friendships blossom When the riad is finally returned to its former glory Suzanna finds she has not just restored an old house but also her soul

Legends of the Fire Spirits Robert Lebling,2020 A magnificent and indispensable portrayal of the rich folklore of the Islamic world According to Islamic tradition Allah created three types of beings angels made of light humans made of earth and jinn made of smokeless fire Supernatural shape shifting intelligent and blessed with free will and remarkable powers jinn have over the ages been given many names demon spirit ghouls genie ifrit and shaitan Believed in by hundreds of millions of people throughout the world and from all faiths jinn have played a particularly central role in the literature culture and belief systems of the Middle East and the Islamic world Legends of the Fire Spirits explores through time and across nations the enduring phenomenon of the jinn From North Africa to Central Asia from the Mediterranean to sub Saharan Africa and beyond this riveting often chilling yet reasoned book draws on ancient testimonies medieval histories colonial records anthropologists reports and travellers tales to explore the different types of jinn their behaviour society culture and long history of contact with humankind It documents their links with famous figures in history such as King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba and illustrates the varied and vivid portrayals of jinn in world literature In essence Legends of the Fire Spirits demonstrates the colourful diversity of human culture and the durability of faith and is a magnificent and indispensable portrayal of the rich folklore of the Islamic world

War and Peace in Islam Ghazi bin Muhammad (Prince of Jordan.), Ibrahim Kaln, Mohammad Hashim Kamali,2013 Written by a number of Islamic religious authorities and Muslim scholars this work presents the views and teachings of mainstream Sunni and Shi i Islam on the subject of jihad It authoritatively presents jihad as it is understood by the majority of the world s 1.7 billion Muslims in the world today and supports this understanding with extensive detail and scholarship No word in English evokes more fear and misunderstanding than jihad To date the books that have appeared on the subject in English by Western scholars have been either openly partisan and polemical or subtly traumatized by so many acts and images of terrorism in the name of jihad and by the historical memory of nearly 1 400 years of confrontation between Islam and Christianity Though jihad is the central concern of War and Peace in Islam The Uses and Abuses of Jihad the range of the essays is not confined exclusively to the study of jihad The work is divided into three parts War and Its Practice Peace and Its Practice and Beyond Peace The Practice of Forbearance Mercy Compassion and Love The book aims to reveal the real meaning of jihad and to rectify many of the misunderstandings that surround both it and Islam s relation with the Other

Messages to the World Osama bin Laden,2020-05-05 Despite the saturation of global media coverage Osama bin Laden s own writings have been curiously absent from analysis of the war on terror Over the last ten years bin Laden has issued a series of carefully tailored public statements from interviews with Western and Arabic journalists to faxes and video recordings These texts supply evidence crucial to an understanding of the bizarre mix of Quranic scholarship CIA training punctual interventions in Gulf politics and messianic anti imperialism that has formed the programmatic core of Al Qaeda In bringing together the various statements issued under bin Laden s name since 1994 this volume forms part of a growing discourse that seeks to demythologize the terrorist network Newly translated from the Arabic annotated with a critical introduction by Islamic scholar Bruce Lawrence this collection places the statements in their religious historical and political context It shows how bin Laden s views draw on and differ from other strands of radical Islamic thought it also demonstrates how his arguments vary in degrees of consistency and how his evasions concerning the true nature and extent of his own group and over his own role in terrorist attacks have contributed to the perpetuation of his personal mythology
