Decompression Juli Zeh,2014-05-20 A psychological thriller in the tradition of Patricia Highsmith about two couples caught in a web of conflicting passions while deep sea diving off the beautiful Canary Islands In the late 1990s Sven Fiedler and his girlfriend Antje left Germany for the island of Lanzarote rejecting what Sven considered a vulgar culture of materialism and judgment The young couple set up a diving service catering to tourists eager to bask in the warm sunshine and explore the silent gleaming marine paradise that makes this otherwise barren volcanic island such a remarkable retreat Sven s approach was simple take the mechanics of diving seriously instruct his clients clearly and stay out of their personal business as best he can And life on the island goes smoothly until two German tourists Jola von der Pahlen a daytime soap star on the verge of cinematic success and Theo Hast a stalled novelist engage Sven for a high priced intensive two week diving experience Staying in a guest house on Sven and Antje s property the two visitors and their hosts quickly become embroiled in a tangle of jealousy and suspicion Sven is struck by Jola s beauty her evident wealth and her apparently volatile relationship with the much older Theo Theo quickly leaps to the conclusion that Sven and Jola are having an affair but oddly he seems to facilitate it rather than trying to intervene Antje looking on grows increasingly wary of these particular clients As the point of view shifts from one character to the next the reader is constantly kept guessing about who knows what and more important who is telling the truth A brutal game of delusion temptation and manipulation plays out pointing toward a violent end But a quiet one down in the underwater world beneath the waves 30th Anniversary Falcon GT ,1997
