Recent Econometric Techniques for Macroeconomic and Financial Data Gilles Dufrénot, Takashi Matsuki, 2020-11-21 The book provides a comprehensive overview of the latest econometric methods for studying the dynamics of macroeconomic and financial time series. It examines alternative methodological approaches and concepts including quantile spectra and co spectra and explores topics such as non linear and non stationary behavior, stochastic volatility models, and the econometrics of commodity markets and globalization. Furthermore, it demonstrates the application of recent techniques in various fields in the frequency domain in the analysis of persistent dynamics in the estimation of state space models and new classes of volatility models. The book is divided into two parts. The first part applies econometrics to the field of macroeconomics, discussing trend cycle decomposition, growth analysis, monetary policy, and international trade. The second part applies econometrics to a wide range of topics in financial economics, including price dynamics in equity, commodity, and foreign exchange markets, and portfolio analysis. The book is essential reading for scholars, students, and practitioners in government and financial institutions interested in applying recent econometric time series methods to financial and economic data.

Development Centre Studies Chinese Economic Performance in the Long Run Maddison Angus, 1998-09-25 The study provides a major reassessment of the scale and scope of China's resurgence over the past half century, employing quantitative measurement techniques which are standard practice in OECD countries but which have not hitherto been available for China.

Social Innovation and Social Entrepreneurship Luis Portales, 2019-04-23 Social entrepreneurship and social innovation both seek to improve the world through social change. Whereas social entrepreneurship revolves around the business side of change, social innovation focuses on the processes through which that change is generated. This textbook provides a comprehensive analysis of both topics, covering all the characteristics and elements of social innovation and social entrepreneurship from a conceptual and practical perspective. The book has four sections: 1. Basics and concepts of Social Innovation and Social Entrepreneurship; 2. Business models and generation of value in social enterprises; 3. Social innovation within traditional companies; and 4. Definition and alignment of the impact of social innovation and entrepreneurship. Students and any practitioners that want to know about social innovation or social entrepreneurship will be exposed to contemporary topics in the field as well as a variety of cases and tools for its development. With its learning objectives, reflective questions, the definition of key concepts, and exercises, this book is the definitive text for advanced undergraduate and graduate courses in social innovation and social entrepreneurship.

Corporate Finance Stephen Ross, 2009-10-09 Corporate Finance by Ross, Westerfield, and Jaffe emphasizes the modern fundamentals of the theory of finance while providing contemporary examples to make the theory come to life. The authors aim to present corporate finance as the working of a small number of integrated and powerful intuitions rather than a collection of unrelated topics. They develop the central concepts of modern finance: arbitrage, net present value, efficient markets, agency theory, options, and the trade off between risk and return, and use them to explain corporate finance with a balance of theory and application. The well-respected author team is known for their clear, accessible presentation of material that makes this text an excellent teaching tool. The ninth edition has been fully updated to reflect the recent financial crisis and is now accompanied by Connect, an exciting new homework management system.

International Financial Reporting and Analysis Ann Jorissen, Anne Britton, David Alexander, Martin Hoogendoorn, Carien Van Mourik, 2014-03-13 This sixth edition of International Financial Reporting and Analysis has been fully updated for new international requirements reflecting changes in the IASB and IFRS whilst maintaining its effective conceptual approach in international reporting standards New real world illustrations have been added and real life company accounts have been updated to include a wider range of companies from across the globe ensuring this edition is truly international This edition also comes with CourseMate and a companion website including PowerPoint slides an Instructor s Manual a comprehensive Testbank and solutions to the end of chapter questions
