Faith, Reason and Theology Saint Thomas (Aquinas),Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies,1987 The topics of Questions i iv of St Thomas Aquinas Commentary on the De Trinitate of Boethius are of vital interest to the Christian philosopher and theologian Written while Aquinas was a youthful Master of Theology the Questions show his solidarity with Christian tradition his wide acquaintance with Scripture and the Fathers of the Church and his creative use of philosophy in addressing theological issues Question i treats of the possibility of our knowing God and the human limitations of this knowledge Question ii concerns theology as a science which reaches out to God by faith in his revealed word and uses philosophical reasoning to throw light on the contents of revelation In Question iii Aquinas takes up the nature of faith showing its relation to religion and its necessity for the welfare of the human race He argues for the catholicity or universality of the Christian faith and defends the orthodox teaching of the trinity of Persons in the one God Question iv turns to a set of philosophical problems occasioned by Boethius treatise on the Trinity the factors that cause a plurality in genera species and individuals In this connection Aquinas makes one of his most controversial statements of the principle of individuation

Faith and Logic Basil Mitchell,2013-07-18 When this book was originally published in 1957 there had been lively debates on the air and in the press about the bearing of modern philosophy upon Christianity but there had been relatively little sustained discussion of the subject This book of essays was the product of a small group of Oxford philosophers and theologians who had met and talked informally for some years before writing it It is an attempt to discuss with care and candour some of the problems raised for Christian belief by contemporary analytical philosophy In asking the questions raised this book makes articulate the perplexities of many intelligent people both believers and unbelievers The contributors concentrate on the way such concepts as God Revelation the Soul Grace are actually used rather than asserting or denying some very general theory of meaning

Faith, Form, and Fashion Paul Helm, 2014-12-25 This is a detailed examination of the theological innovations of Kevin Vanhoozer and John Franke Each proposes that doctrinal and systematic theology should be re cast in the light of postmodernity No longer can Christian theology be foundational or have a stable metaphysical and epistemological framework Vanhoozer advocates a theo dramatic reconstruction of Christian doctrine replacing the timeless propositions of the purely cerebral theology of the Reformed tradition in favor of a theology that does justice to the polyphony of multiple biblical genres Franke holds that theology is part of a three way conversation between Scripture tradition and culture with an uncertain outcome This study shows that each of these proposals is based on misunderstanding and exaggeration and that the case against foundationalism is unclear and unpersuasive It is argued that Vanhoozer's appeal to revelation as divine speech acts is not as radical as he thinks and his epistemology is weak In the hands of postmodernity Christian theology abandons its exactness and the standards of care that are a notable feature of doctrinal constrictions The book will be of importance to those with interest in Reformed theology or Christian theology more generally It provides a clear assessment of the impact of the postmodern mindset on theology

Burnham, 2006-10-01 The dominant position of science in our culture has ended In our postmodern world belief that science will provide the answer to our problems and that progress is inevitable has been shaken if not toppled Optimism has been replaced by realism creating a milieu for the development of intelligent Christian belief Participating in the Trinity Institute's conference on The Church in a Postmodern Age these six prominent scholars explore the breakdown of the basic tenets of the Enlightenment the sorry state of biblical literacy in our culture Christian faith in a pluralistic world the relevance of the Bible today and the role of the church in our age Contributors Robert N Bellah Diogenes Allen George A Lindbeck James B Miller Sandra M Schneiders and Rowan D Williams

A Modern Introduction to Theology Philip Kennedy, 2009-09-22 Philip Kennedy here offers the first book that any student with or without religious convictions can profitably use to get quickly to grips with the essentials of the Christian religion its history and its key thinkers its successes and its failures Most existing undergraduate textbooks of theology begin from essentially traditional positions on the Bible doctrine authority interpretation and God What makes Philip Kennedy's book both singularly important and uniquely different is that it has a completely new starting point The author contends that traditional Christian theology must extensively overhaul many of its theses because of a multitude of modern social historical and intellectual revolutions Offering a grand historical sweep of the genesis of the modern age and writing with panache and a magisterial grasp of the relevant debates conflicts and controversies A Modern Introduction to Theology moves a tired and increasingly incoherent discipline in genuinely fresh and exciting directions and will be welcomed by students and readers of the subject

For the Life of the World (Theology for the Life of the World) Miroslav Volf, Matthew Croasmun, 2019-01-22 The question of what makes life worth living is more vital now than ever In today s pluralistic postsecular world universal values are dismissed as mere matters of private opinion and the question of what constitutes flourishing life for ourselves our neighbors and the planet as a whole is neglected in our universities our churches and our culture at large Although we increasingly have technology to do almost anything we have little sense of what is truly worth accomplishing In this provocative new contribution to public theology world renowned theologian Miroslav Volf named America s New Public Intellectual by Scot McKnight on his Jesus Creed blog and Matthew Croasmun explain that the intellectual tools needed to rescue us from our present malaise and meet our new cultural challenge are the tools of theology A renewal of theology is crucial to help us articulate compelling visions of the good life find our way through the maze of contested questions of value and answer the fundamental question of what makes life worth living
