Webster,2011-10-26 The MENC Handbook of Research on Music Learning Volume 1 Strategies brings together the best and most current research on methods for music learning focusing squarely on the professions empirical and conceptual knowledge of how students gain competence in music at various ages and in different contexts The collection of chapters written by the foremost figures active in the field takes a broad theoretical perspective on current critical areas of research including music development music listening and reading motivation and self regulated learning in music music perception and movement The books companion volume Applications builds an extensive and solid position of practice upon the frameworks and research presented here Throughout both volumes in this essential set focus is placed on the musical knowledge and musical skills needed to perform create understand reflect on enjoy value and respond to music A key point of emphasis rests on the relationship between music learning and finding meaning in music and as music technology plays an increasingly important role in learning today chapters move beyond exclusively formal classroom instruction into other forms of systematic learning and informal instruction Either individually or paired with its companion Volume 2 Applications this indispensable overview of this growing area of inquiry will appeal to students and scholars in Music Education as well as front line music educators in the classroom Emerging Solutions for Musical Arts Education in Africa Pan African Society for Musical Arts Education,2005 Emerging Solutions for Musical arts Education in South Africa offers peer reviewed articles prepared for the 2003 Conference of the Pan African Society for Musical Arts Education in Africa held in Kisumu Maseno Kenya Not only does this publication voice the solutions offered by 31 authors from the African continent and beyond but it presents in a unique and highly accessible fashion the collective voice of the conference participants True to the spirit of ubuntu an individual is only a person through other people their communities this publication is a reflection of the essence of an overarching sub-Saharan philosophy the contents represents a conference where papers were not presented but where conference participants engaged to discuss solutions for the musical arts on the African continent While the individual voice has been given its rightful place the collective voice represents an emergent song composed by the scholarly community in oral fashion This publication provides insight into the problems of musical arts education in Africa and solutions for musical arts education

Music Perception Mari Riess Jones,Richard R. Fay,Arthur N. Popper,2010-08-17 The Springer Handbook of Auditory Research presents a series of comprehensive and synthetic reviews of the fundamental topics in modern auditory research The volumes are aimed at all individuals with interests in hearing research including advanced graduate students post doctoral researchers and clinical investigators The volumes are intended to introduce new investigators to important aspects of hearing science and to help established investigators to better understand the fundamental theories and data in fields of hearing that they may not normally follow closely Each volume presents a particular topic comprehensively and each serves as a synthetic overview and guide to the literature As such the chapters present neither exhaustive data reviews nor original research that has not yet appeared in peer reviewed journals The volumes focus on topics that have developed a solid data and conceptual foundation rather than on those for which a literature is only beginning to develop New research areas will be covered on a timely basis in the series as they begin to mature
