Photography as Critical Practice David Bate, 2020 The other is a topic of great interest within and across contemporary photographic practice and theory yet it remains neglected outside the now well established field of postcolonial studies This volume brings together photography and written essays that relate to aspects of otherness and visual work Presented together the images and critical writings work in concert to construct a new social perspective on questions of otherness and alterity and to highlight photography as a form of critical practice In a departure from existing conceptions of otherness in postcolonial discourse Photography as Critical Practice places emphasis on the human condition not as a liberal concept but as something formed and framed by a broader dimension of social sexual and cultural otherness In this way the book provides a fascinating new vista on the otherness of photography
