The eight levels of Penguin Readers follow the Common European Framework of Reference for Language Learning (CEFR). Before, during, and after reading, questions test readers' story comprehension and develop vocabulary. Frankenstein, a Level 5 Reader, is B1 in the CEFR framework. The text is made up of sentences with up to four clauses, introducing present perfect, continuous past perfect, reported speech, and second conditional. It is well supported by illustrations which appear regularly. Victor Frankenstein wants to make his own creature from body parts from his laboratory. But when the creature is finished, Frankenstein is shocked by his creation and runs away. Lonely and angry, the creature plans to kill his maker and all the people that Frankenstein loves. Frankenstein Mary Shelley, 2020-01-04 A monster assembled by a scientist from parts of dead bodies develops a mind of his own as he learns to loathe himself and hate his creator. Shelley's suspenseful and intellectually rich gothic tale confronts some of the most important and enduring themes in all of literature: the power of human imagination, the potential hubris of science, the gulf between appearance and essence, the effects of human cruelty, the desire for revenge, and the need for forgiveness, and much more.

Frankenstein in Baghdad Ahmed Saadawi, 2018-01-23 International Booker Prize finalist. Brave and ingenious. The New York Times. Gripping, darkly humorous, profound. Phil Klay, bestselling author and National Book Award winner for Redeployment. Extraordinary. A devastating but essential read. Kevin Powers, bestselling author and National Book Award finalist for The Yellow Birds. From the rubble-strewn streets of U.S.-occupied Baghdad, Hadi, a scavenger and an oddball fixture at a local café, collects human body parts and stitches them together to create a corpse. His goal, he claims, is for the government to recognize the parts as people and to give them proper burial. But when the corpse goes missing, a wave of eerie murders sweeps the city, and reports stream in of a horrendous-looking criminal who, though shot, cannot be killed. Hadi soon realizes he's created a monster, one that needs human flesh to survive: first from the guilty, and then from anyone in its path. A prizewinning novel by Baghdad's new literary star. The New York Times. Frankenstein in Baghdad captures, with white-knuckle horror and black humor, the surreal reality of contemporary Iraq.
