Servants of the Servant Don N. Howell Jr., 2003-11-14 Leadership is a subject that has gained impressive visibility in the past two decades The number of books monographs and articles as well as seminars devoted to the development of one s leadership skills has been almost exponential growth This study is an attempt to forge a full orb ed theology of Christian leadership grounded in the teaching of Scripture What emerges from tracing the theme of leadership through the biblical record is a servanthood pattern one that is wholly distinct from prevailing secular models Our exposition begins with the biblical language of the servant the term of choice for those great leaders used of God to further his saving purposes in the world Eleven Old Testament and five New Testament leaders are profiled The portrait of Jesus Christ focuses on three motifs that governed his training of the twelve for kingdom ministry The Pauline letters are mined for those convictions that governed Paul s practice of leadership both of his mission team and of the faith communities that emerged from that mission The treatment of each leader from Joseph to

Paul begins with a series of preliminary questions and concludes with a mini profile that correlates the biblical data with these questions. The final chapter offers a summary profile of the servant leader one whose character motives and agenda align with the divine purposes. Though designed as a textbook for upper level college and seminary courses on leadership, the book's readable format is ideal for churches and parachurch organizations in their leadership training programs. The author's prayer is that this work will serve as a catalyst to call God's people back to Scripture and thereby raise up a whole new generation of authentic servant leaders.

Maxwell, 2005-08-20 Developing the Leader Within You is Dr Maxwell's first and most enduring leadership book having sold more than one million copies. These same principles and practices are available for everyday leaders in every walk of life. You will learn The True Definition of Leader Leadership is influence. That's it. Nothing more, nothing less. The Traits of Leadership Leadership is not an exclusive club for those who were born with it. The traits that are the raw materials of leadership can be acquired. Link them up with desire and nothing can keep you from becoming a leader. The Difference Between Management and Leadership Making sure the work is done by others is the accomplishment of a manager. Inspiring others to do better work is the accomplishment of a leader. God has called every believer to influence others to be salt and light. Developing the Leader Within You will equip you to improve your leadership and inspire others. Spiritual Leadership Henry T. Blackaby, Richard Blackaby, 2011 The revised edition of the Blackaby's Experiencing God encourages business and church leaders alike to follow God's biblical design for organizational success.

Results-Based Leadership David Ulrich, Jack Zenger, Norman Smallwood, 1999-04-06 A landmark book Results Based Leadership challenges the conventional wisdom surrounding leadership. Authors Ulrich, Zenger, and Smallwood, world renowned experts in human resources and training, argue that it is not enough to gauge leaders by personal traits such as character, style, and values. Rather, effective leaders know how to connect these leadership attributes with results. Results Based Leadership shows executives how to deliver results in four specific areas: results for employees, for the organization, for its customers, and for its investors. The authors provide action-oriented guidelines that readers can follow to develop and hone their own results-based leadership skills. By shifting our focus to the connection between the attributes and the results of leadership, this perceptive new guide fundamentally improves our understanding of effective leadership. Results Based Leadership brings a refreshing clarity and directness to the leadership discussion, providing a hands-on program to help executives succeed with their leadership challenges Spiritual Mentoring Keith R. Anderson, Randy D. Reese, 1999-05-20

Drawing on the writings of Augustine John of the Cross Teresa of Avila and others Keith R Anderson and Randy D Reese show that the age old practice of Christian mentoring is meant to facilitate our growth throughout life They provide motivation principles and plans for starting and continuing mentoring relationships The Making of a Leader Study Guide Frank Damazio, 1992-03 In this book Frank Damazio lays out for the serious student a broad and deep discussion of what it means to be responsible for a group of followers This perennial best seller presents a scriptural analysis of the philosophy history qualifications preparation and practice of Christian leadership Charts diagrams and illustrations enhance this well tested and taught study on Christian leadership Constructing Experience Charles Bazerman, 1994 Charles Bazerman s newest book a selection of both his published and unpublished essays from recent years ranges from pedagogy to research to theory exploring how all three levels are motivated by common concerns and how they are integrated through similar concepts and approaches From this integrative perspective Bazerman reveals his life long inquiry into the nature of language why it exists and what place it holds in the social world Presenting a powerful action oriented view of language that finds meaning in local circumstances and local uses Bazerman divides his essays into four parts beginning with an examination of the classroom experience In describing the dynamics of the classroom and the relationship of the classroom to surrounding social arrangements Bazerman notes how reading relates to writing how interpersonal relations influence and structure acts of reading and writing and how reading and writing are themselves forms of social action Bazerman in parts 2 and 3 explains how larger forms of social structure are in dialectic with local acts of literacy how experience of the world influences both everyday writing and empirically driven research and how individuals conceive of social situations and actions to think about and plan activities As he admittedly puzzles through conceptual obstacles Bazerman explores many of the terms and theories evoked in rhetorical studies and provides a critical examination of the theories of James Kinneavy as well as more general thoughts on the nature of rhetorical study In part 4 Bazerman reinterprets the classical rhetorical concept of kairos in the light of theory and research in the social sciences analyzes intertextuality in a scientific text and offers a rereading of the writings of Adam Smith Throughout this book Bazerman maintains that research into writing is the examination of what people do and have done what influences what they do and what texts do to people who write and read them In addition he reiterates the importance of literacy as a connecting device essential to survival growth and change Lack of literacy cuts people off from the institutions and means of life in a society Redemptive Leadership Harv Powers, 2021-11-09 Will God ever use me again How can I invest my broken life Does my life matter Have you ever asked yourself these questions All too often churches organizations and companies abandon their broken leaders at the very moment the person becomes most useful In Redemptive Leadership Dr Harv Powers explains Why God uses only broken leaders How God uses brokenness to transform the lives of others The process to become a redemptive leader Redemptive leadership rests on the hope that out of the ashes of our lives transcendent influence emerges God uses all the events of our lives both positive and negative to forge in us our redemptive influence for His kingdom If the gospel holds any power at all it does so because God works powerfully in and through our weakness Leadership transcends the mastery of skills techniques and knowledge what we call competency Dr Powers charts a path through our moments of crisis and failure so we will bear the seeds of godly character and exert our greatest influence
