Middleton, 2010-04-28 Middletons fair uncluttered synthesis of a wide ranging topic continues to offer inspiration for thinking about what it means to be different from and similar to Others Brief ethnographic excerpts are interwoven to demonstrate the hold that culture has on us Such firsthand experiences reported by anthropologists reveal the challenging and sometimes humorous situations that can arise when we attempt to understand Others and when they do the same with us Heralded by Anthropology Today Middleton by making the sensory and intellectual challenge of culture shock so central to his pedagogic strategy has found common ground that should unite all schools of cultural anthropology The work brims with valuable insights that broaden possibilities to achieve rewarding human interaction whether in our own neighborhood or across the globe Arguably one of the best contemporary treatments of cultural diversity available the latest edition includes expanded discussions of applied anthropology and ethics Explorations in Diversity Sharon K. Anderson, Valerie A. Middleton, 2017-12-11 Every person comes to know and understand their life from their own perspective As a result it is often difficult and sometimes unbelievable to realize that others whom one may or may not know might also experience daily life in a vastly different way Explorations in Diversity offers readers the opportunity to step into the lives of diverse others and experience their lives through their eyes Some readers may find themselves struggling to comprehend or even believe the experiences this text's authors share or where they fit within each narrative. However, each account in this text ultimately aims to open minds, hearts, and mouths in ways that push each of us toward a better understanding of our own privileged statuses so that we can use who we are, what we say, and what we do to make our society more accepting and inclusive of all our diverse representations.

Human Diversity Christophas H. Walker, 2018-01-09 Human Diversity Christophas H. Walker, 2015-12-31 Learning to Understand Difference Christophas H. Walker, 2016-12-31 Understanding Diversity FRED L. ELLIS PINCUS (BRYAN R.), Bryan R. Ellis, 2021-07-28 Beyond Race Joelle Presson, Jan Jenner, 2014-12-31 Human Diversity Alexander Alland, 1984-06 Human Diversity Charles Murray, 2020-01-28

All people are equal, but as Human Diversity explores, all groups of people are not the same. A fascinating investigation of the genetics and neuroscience of human differences. The thesis of Human Diversity is that advances in genetics and neuroscience are overthrowing an intellectual orthodoxy that has ruled the social sciences for decades. The core of the orthodoxy consists of three dogmas: Gender is a social construct, Race is a social construct, and Class is a function of privilege. The problem is that all three dogmas are half-truths. They have stifled progress in understanding the rich texture that biology adds to our understanding of the social, political, and economic worlds we live in. It is not a story to be feared. There are no monsters in the closet. Murray writes, no dread doors we must fear opening. But it is a story that needs telling. Human Diversity does so without sensationalism, drawing on the most authoritative scientific findings, celebrating both our many differences and our common humanity.

Cultural Anthropology: An Applied Perspective Gary Ferraro, Susan Andreatta, 2009-02-24

In addition to a comprehensive overview of the discipline, CULTURAL ANTHROPOLOGY AN APPLIED PERSPECTIVE goes beyond basic introductory material by applying the theory, insights, and methods of cultural anthropology to contemporary situations that students, both majors and non-majors, are likely to encounter in their professional and personal lives. In the Eighth Edition, new co-author Susan Andreatta adds her expertise in economic and medical anthropology to that of Gary Ferraro, who has worked extensively in the anthropology of business education and organizational structures. Through the book's lucid narrative and wealth of modern examples, students come to understand how to view the world in which they find themselves today. New applied case studies opening each chapter are designed to catch the attention of students and remind them that the study of anthropology really is relevant to our lives. These introductory case studies, the popular Cross Cultural Miscues presenting real-life examples, and Applied Perspectives features are now designated with a SWAP icon. Share with a Parent or friend to encourage students to recognize the importance and necessity of understanding culture: what it is and how it changes as individuals living in today's world. The Contemporary Issues features and in-text examples also emphasize the relevance of anthropology to students' lives and include new topics, including how South Korean society has rethought the value of having female children and whether or not professional anthropologists should work for the U.S. military in Iraq and Afghanistan to help students better understand and participate in the globalized world around them.

Posthuman Blackness and the Black Female Imagination Kristen Lillvis, 2017-09-01 Posthuman Blackness and the Black Female Imagination examines the future oriented visions of black subjectivity in works by contemporary black women writers filmmakers and musicians including Toni Morrison Octavia Butler Julie Dash and Janelle Mon e In this innovative study Kristen Lillvis supplements historically situated conceptions of blackness with imaginative projections of black futures This theoretical approach allows her to acknowledge the importance of history without positing a purely historical origin for black identities The authors considered in this book set their stories in the past yet use their characters particularly women characters to show how the potential inherent in the future can inspire black authority and resistance Lillvis introduces the term posthuman blackness to describe the empowered subjectivities black women and men develop through their simultaneous existence within past present and future temporalities This project draws on posthuman theory an area of study that examines the disrupted unities between biology and technology the self and the outer world and most important for this project history and potentiality in its readings of a variety of imaginative works including works of historical fiction such as Gayl Jones s Corregidora and Morrison s Beloved Reading neo slave narratives through posthuman theory reveals black identity and culture as temporally flexible based in the potential of what is to come and the history of what has occurred

Alien Constructions Patricia Melzer, 2010-01-01 An incisive critical work that looks at Octavia Butler s writing the movies of the Matrix and Alien series and more through a feminist lens Femspec Feminist thinkers and writers are increasingly recognizing science fiction s potential to shatter patriarchal and heterosexual norms while the creators of science fiction are bringing new depth and complexity to the genre by engaging with feminist theories and politics This book maps the intersection of feminism and science fiction through close readings of science fiction literature by Octavia E Butler Richard Calder and Melissa Scott and the movies The Matrix and the Alien series Patricia Melzer analyzes how these authors and films represent debates and concepts in three areas of feminist thought identity and difference feminist critiques of science and technology and the relationship among gender identity body and desire including the new gender politics of queer desires transgender and intersexed bodies and identities She demonstrates that key political elements shape these debates including global capitalism and exploitative class relations within a growing international system the impact of computer industrial and medical technologies on women s lives and reproductive rights and posthuman embodiment as expressed through biotechnologies the body machine interface and the commodification of desire Melzer s investigation makes it clear that feminist writings and readings of science fiction are part of a feminist critique of existing power relations and that the alien constructions cyborgs clones androids aliens and hybrids that populate postmodern science fiction are as potentially empowering as they are threatening

The Bioregional Imagination Tom Lynch, Cheryll Glotfelty, Karla Armbruster, 2012 Bioregionalism is an innovative way of thinking about place and planet from an ecological perspective

Although bioregional ideas occur regularly in ecocritical writing until now no systematic effort has been made to outline the principles of bioregional literary criticism and to use it as a way to read write understand and teach literature The twenty four original essays here are written by an outstanding selection of international scholars The range of bioregions covered is global and includes such diverse places as British Columbia s Meldrum Creek and Italy s Po River Valley the Arctic and the Outback There are even forays into cyberspace and outer space In their comprehensive introduction the editors map the terrain of the bioregional movement including its history and potential to inspire and invigorate place based and environmental literary criticism Responding to bioregional tenets this volume is divided into four sections The essays in the Reinhabiting section narrate experiments in living in place and restoring damaged environments The Rereading essays practice bioregional literary criticism both by examining texts with strong ties to bioregional paradigms and by opening other less obvious texts to bioregional analysis In Reimagining the essays push bioregionalism to evolve by expanding its corpus of texts coupling its perspectives with other approaches or challenging its core constructs Essays in the Renewal section address bioregional pedagogy beginning with local habitat studies and concluding with musings about the Internet In response to the environmental crisis we must reimagine our relationship to the places we inhabit This volume shows how literature and literary studies are fundamental tools to such a reimagining

Exotics and Erotics DeWight R. Middleton,2002 In the current fast paced information age implicit and explicit messages relating to sex and sexuality abound But sex and sexuality often are misconstrued and misunderstood by those who perceive them through the narrow lens of their own place and time Middleton s fundamentally anthropological treatment explores universal human sexuality in conjunction with its local manifestations in specific cultural contexts He distributes many case studies throughout to illustrate the exploration of such topics as the body patterns of sexuality sexual behavior romantic passion marriage and kinship among others This lively authoritative text fills unrealized gaps in knowledge by taking readers to new realms in understanding themselves and others the action of the international community Classic Readings in Cultural Anthropology Gary P. Ferraro, 2016 In the Eagle's Shadow Kyle Longley, 2009-05-19 All too often undergraduate readers can find themselves overwhelmed by foreign relations textbooks the onslaught of names events and resultant policies and counterpolicies leaving them unable to form an appreciation much less a working knowledge of international relations Worse yet loose references to prominent scholars can leave them scratching their heads It is with the student in mind that we are proud to present the second edition of our popular text a concise narrative history that in straightforward language relates the long and complex history of the relationships between the United States and the nations of Latin America Like its predecessor this new edition of In the Eagle's Shadow is ideal for use as a core text for courses in U S Latin American relations as well as engaging supplementary reading for the U S or Latin American history surveys Library of the World's Best Literature, Ancient and Modern: A-Z, 1897
