The Zenith® TRANS-OCEANIC John H. Bryant, FAIA, John H. Bryant, Harold N. Cones, 2008 The previously untold story of the Zenith Trans Oceanic the world's most romantic and expensive series of portable radios now in a newly revised expanded edition Long a companion of kings presidents transoceanic yachtsmen and world explorers the Trans Oceanic was also carried into battle by American troops in three wars Its great popularity in spite of a very high price can be laid at the feet of several generations of armchair travelers who used the shortwave capabilities of the Trans Oceanic as a window on the world With access to the Zenith corporate archives and their long experience as radio enthusiasts and writers for both the popular and scholarly press Professors Bryant and Cones present the engrossing stories of the development and use of the Trans Oceanic throughout its forty year life They present a wealth of never before published photographs documents and information concerning these fascinating radios their collection preservation and restoration Marketing Identities Through Language E. Martin, 2005-11-30 Elizabeth Martin explores the impact of globalization on the language of French advertising showing that English and global imagery play an important role in tailoring global campaigns to the French market with media companies undeterred by the attempts through legislation to curb language mixing in the media A Thousand Years of Nonlinear History Manuel De Landa, 1997 More than a simple expository history A Thousand Years of Nonlinear History sketches the outlines of a renewed materialist philosophy of history in the tradition of Fernand Braudel Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari while also engaging the critical new understanding of material processes derived from the sciences of dynamics Following in the wake of his groundbreaking War in the Age of Intelligent Machines Manuel De Landa presents a radical synthesis of historical development over the last one thousand years More than a simple expository history A Thousand Years of Nonlinear History sketches the outlines of a renewed materialist philosophy of history in the tradition of Fernand Braudel Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari while also engaging the critical new understanding of material processes derived from the sciences of dynamics Working against prevailing attitudes that see history as an arena of texts discourses ideologies and metaphors De Landa traces the concrete movements and interplays of matter and energy through human populations in the last millennium De Landa attacks three domains that have given shape to human societies economics biology and linguistics In every case what one sees is the self directed processes of matter and energy interacting with the whim and will of human history itself to form a panoramic vision of the West free of rigid teleology and naive notions of progress and even more important free of any deterministic source of its urban institutional and technological forms Rather the source of all concrete forms in the West's history are shown to derive from internal morphogenetic capabilities that lie within the flow of matter energy itself WIG Craft and Ekranoplan Liang Yun, Alan Bliault, Johnny Doo, 2009-12-03 In the last half century high speed water transportation has developed rapidly Novel high performance marine vehicles such as the air cushion vehicle ACV surface effect ship SES high speed monohull craft MHC catamaran CAT hydrofoil craft HYC wave piercing craft WPC and small water area twin hull craft SWATH have all developed as concepts achieving varying degrees of commercial and military success Prototype ACV and SES have achieved speeds of 100 knots in at calm conditions however the normal cruising speed for commercial operations has remained around 35-50 knots This is partly due to increased drag in an average coastal way where such craft operate services and partly due to limitations of the propulsion systems for such craft Water jets and water propellers face limitations due to cavitation at high speed for example SWATH are designed for reduced motions in a seaway but the hull form is not a low drag form suitable for high speed operation So that seems to lead to a problem maintain water contact and either water propulsion systems run out of power or craft motions and speed loss are a problem in higher seastates The only way to higher speed would appear to be to disconnect completely from the water surface You the reader might respond with a question about racing hydroplanes which manage speeds of above 200 kph Yes true but the power to weight ratio is extremely high on such racing machines and not economic if translated into a useful commercial vessel

Rogers, 2012 Getting an innovation adopted is difficult a common problem is increasing the rate of its diffusion Diffusion is the communication of an innovation through certain channels over time among members of a social system It is a communication whose messages are concerned with new ideas it is a process where participants create and share information to achieve a mutual understanding Initial chapters of the book discuss the history of diffusion research some major criticisms of diffusion research and the meta research procedures used in the book This text is the third edition of this well respected work The first edition was published in 1962 and the fifth edition in 2003 The book's theoretical framework relies on the concepts of information and uncertainty Uncertainty is the degree to which alternatives are perceived with respect to an event and the relative probabilities of these alternatives uncertainty implies a lack of predictability and motivates an individual to seek information A technological innovation embodies information thus reducing uncertainty Information affects uncertainty in a situation where a choice exists among alternatives information about a technological innovation can be software information or innovation evaluation information An innovation is an idea practice or object that is perceived as new by an individual or an other unit of adoption innovation presents an individual or organization with a new alternative s or new means of solving problems Whether new alternatives are superior is not precisely known by problem solvers Thus people seek new information Information about new ideas is exchanged through a process of convergence involving interpersonal networks Thus diffusion of innovations is a social process that communicates perceived information about a new idea it produces an alteration in the structure and function of a social system producing social consequences Diffusion has four elements 1 an innovation that is perceived as new 2 communication channels 3 time and 4 a social system members jointly solving to accomplish a common goal Diffusion systems can be centralized or decentralized The innovation development process has five steps passing from recognition of a need through R 2 persuasion to form an attitude 3 decision 4 implementation and 5 confirmation reinforcement or rejection Innovations can also be re invented changed or modified by the user The innovation decision period is the time required to pass through the innovation decision process Rates of adoption of an innovation depend on and can be predicted by how its characteristics are perceived in terms of relative advantage compatibility complexity trialability and observability The diffusion effect is the increasing cumulative pressure from interpersonal networks to adopt or reject an innovation Overadoption is an innovation's adoption when experts suggest its rejection Diffusion networks convey innovation evaluation information to decrease uncertainty about an idea's use The heart of the diffusion process is the modeling and imitation by potential adopters of their network partners who have adopted already Change agents influence innovation decisions in a direction deemed desirable Opinion leadership is the degree individuals influence others attitudes The American Soldier Samuel A.
