Few Days in the Poverty of Utica

Retired from 26 years as a policeman in Kent County, Ingelton presents the views for and against the British police carrying arms on a regular basis. He looks at the history of violent crime in the country, violence against the representatives of law and order, and the extent to which British police have had recourse to firearms in the past. He also compares the situation in other countries. He takes no position on the question, other than to hope that it will be settled with the fullest possible knowledge. Distributed in the US by ISBS. Annotation copyrighted by Book News, Inc., Portland, OR So traumatized by the attack on Pearl Harbour was the author, that he vowed to "get" a Japanese battleship in retaliation. On April 7th, 1945 he fulfilled that vow! Rebbe Nachman of Breslov - great Chassidic master, outstanding teacher and thinker - was truly one of the most masterful storytellers of all time. "Others tell stories to put people to sleep," he said, "but I tell stories to wake people up!" Sometimes simple, sometimes intricate, yet always spellbinding, educational and inspirational,

Rebbe Nachman's tales speak of joy and hope, patience and loyalty, faith and truth, and much more. Ming is an artist from China who now lives and works in New York City. He teaches children in the public school system how to draw and paint. However, he also teaches them something else that's very important. What does Ming teach the children and why is it so important? [The book] introduces you to this digital communications mode.
