Manufacturing Hate Milton Allimadi,2021-06-14 The book takes the reader on a sweeping journey critiquing the so called journals of the European trespassers who traveled to Africa beginning in the 17th century to discover and arrogantly rename lakes rivers mountains and even countries that already had African names The early European travelers were agents of imperialism They mapped out Africa for later colonial conquest Their journals demonized Africans in order to justify conquest colonization and exploitation of Africa the people and the resources under the false narrative of civilizing Africa This civilizing mission was carried out by genocidal killings An estimated 10 million Africans perished in Congo alone while King Leopold II of Belgium enriched himself by plundering the resources The book critiques dozens of articles dating from decades ago in publications such as The New York Times National Geographic magazine Time magazine and The New Yorker It shows how these media outlets inherited their racist depictions of Africa from the European travelers journals The book analyzes letters exchanged by New York Times reporters sent to Africa beginning in the 1950s and a long serving foreign news editor These letters unearthed from the Times archives during the author s research document the racist animus toward Africa harbored by the Times foreign news editor and some of his reporters The Times even fabricated incidents that never occurred in Africa in order to depict the continent as backward The book will enlighten any reader who wants to know how Africa and African descendants became the other in Western media
