

Guide to Formal Essay Writing

This guide to essay writing has been created by teachers of Fredericton High School to help you research, write, reference, and format your essay. Each section contains a list of helpful links that will assist you with essay writing. These links have been tried and approved by FHS teachers.

At the end of this guide are three links to sample essays, formatted to match the three styles of writing that are used at FHS.

I. BEGINNING YOUR PAPER - Topic Selection and Research

- (a) Topic Selection: Your topic should be something you are interested in within the confines of the course you are taking and at the instructor's discretion.
- (b) Research: Read as much as you can about your topic. Find as many academic sources about your topic as possible. Books are best; however, academic websites work, too (these are primarily .edu sites).
- (c) Once you understand your topic, create a "why" or "how" question that will generate discussion or argument.
- (d) Thesis Statement: Formulate a thesis statement that begins to answer the question you have about your topic. This should include an argument and several reasons to help prove your argument.
- (e) Format: Establish the format for your paper. This may be dependent upon the class or discipline for which you are writing your paper. Common formats include APA style, Chicago-manual style, or MLA style.

Recitatif Toni Morrison, 2022-02-01 A beautiful arresting short story by Toni Morrison the only one she ever wrote about race and the relationships that shape us through life with an introduction by Zadie Smith Twyla and Roberta have known each other since they were eight years old and spent four months together as roommates in the St Bonaventure shelter Inseparable at the time they lose touch as they grow older only to find each other later at a diner then at a grocery store and again at a protest Seemingly at opposite ends of every problem and in disagreement each time they meet the two women still cannot deny the deep bond their shared experience has forged between them Written in 1980 and anthologized in a number of collections this is the first time Recitatif is being published as a stand alone hardcover In the story Twyla s and Roberta s races remain ambiguous We know that one is white and one is black but which is which And who is right about the race of the woman the girls tormented at the orphanage Morrison herself described this story as an experiment in the removal of all racial codes from a narrative about two characters of different races for whom racial identity is crucial Recitatif is a remarkable look into what keeps us together and what keeps us apart and about how perceptions are made tangible by reality

How to Read Like a Writer Mike Bunn, When you Read Like a Writer RLW you work to identify some of the choices the author made so that you can better understand how such choices might arise in your own writing The idea is to carefully examine the things you read looking at the writerly techniques in the text in order to decide if you might want to adopt similar or the same techniques in your writing You are reading to learn about writing Instead of reading for content or to better understand the ideas in the writing which you will automatically do to some degree anyway you are trying to understand how the piece of writing was put together by the author and what you can learn about writing by reading a particular text As you read in this way you think about how the choices the author made and the techniques that he she used are influencing your own responses as a reader What is it about the way this text is written that makes you feel and respond the way you do
