

Paper About Describing Yourself

4 pages | 786 words

Who am I to tell you who I am? Depending on the certain, specific story I can have many different characteristics that describe me. Except, not just one word can portray who I am, or for a matter of fact, it can't portray who anyone is. I believe how we act shows people who we are and how we react tells us who we are. Our actions can depict who we are as a person, but that's not all. Who we are comes from deep down, in the soul. Another problem with our self-image is that who we may think we are may be different from who others see us as. Often times, how we feel about ourselves can transfer into how we seem in the stories we tell. For instance, if you have high self-esteem you may display yourself in a more positive way through your words. On the other hand, if you look at yourself poorly then you may come across in more of a negative state. I feel like I am rather neutral in this field, it varies per day who I am and how I put myself out there. Our characteristics and traits are shaped through our past and what we've gone through. Not many people see others on that level and are so quick to judge their stories from superficial information they're told. Other people don't know where I grew up, places I've been to, or things I've seen. My parents raised me in the same town my mother grew up, which I seem to find rather neat. From there on in the Wrightsville I became the person I am today thanks to my friends, teachers, and family. When I meet someone, these are not the first things I reveal. Normally everyone introduces themselves with the basics, for example; name, age, and/or hobbies. Once you get to know me my storytelling gets much more detailed and more interesting I hope. I have a hard time leaving out minor parts and end up going on for a while. If I had to describe myself with one word, it would have to be wholesome. I am a wholesome person, I care about most things and am respectful to all. I feel like you can infer these traits from listening to me share a story. I have a poor habit for exaggerating from time to time, but who doesn't. Self-worth means a lot to me because if you don't believe in yourself then who is going to, so that's why my storytelling and voice is important. Almost every story I share, every moment I impart has a sense of humor to it. I have always been a funny kid growing up and I am almost positive I got this characteristic from my father, he too is quite the comedian. Sometimes it's good, but sometimes it can be bad. With this blessing comes a price, I have trouble knowing when to turn off my humor and I can bring wit to serious matters. Unlike the olden days, storytelling can be greatly affected by my social media. It's not that uncommon...

How to Write a Thesis Umberto Eco, 2015-02-27 The wise and witty guide to researching and writing a thesis by the bestselling author of The Name of the Rose now published in English for the first time Learn the art of the thesis from a giant of Italian literature and philosophy from choosing a topic to organizing a work schedule to writing the final draft By the time Umberto Eco published his best selling novel The Name of the Rose he was one of Italy's most celebrated intellectuals a distinguished academic and the author of influential works on semiotics Some years before that Eco published a little book for his students in which he offered useful advice on all the steps involved in researching and writing a thesis Since then it has been translated into 17 languages and is now for the first time presented in English Eco's approach is anything but dry and academic He not only offers practical advice but also considers larger questions about the value of the thesis writing exercise in six different parts The Definition and Purpose of a Thesis Choosing the Topic Conducting the Research The Work Plan and the Index Cards Writing the Thesis The Final Draft Eco advises students how to avoid thesis neurosis and he answers the important question Must You Read Books He reminds students You are not Proust and Write everything that comes into your head but only in the first draft Of course there was no Internet in 1977 but Eco's index card research system offers important lessons about critical thinking and information curating for students of today who may be burdened by Big Data Irreverent and often hilarious How to Write a Thesis is unlike any other writing manual and belongs on the bookshelves of students teachers writers and Eco fans everywhere

The Palace Job Patrick Weekes, 2013 Loch is seeking revenge It would help if she wasn't in jail The plan to steal a priceless elven manuscript that once belonged to her family but now is in the hands of the most powerful man in the Republic To do so Loch former soldier former prisoner current fugitive must assemble a crack team of magical misfits that includes a cynical illusionist a shapeshifting unicorn a repentant death priestess a talking magical warhammer and a lad with seemingly no skills to help her break into the floating fortress of Heaven's Spire and the vault that holds her family's treasure all while eluding the unrelenting pursuit of Justicar Pyvic whose only mission is to see the law upheld What could possibly go wrong The Palace Job is a funny action packed high fantasy heist caper in the tradition of Scott Lynch's Gentleman Bastards series from debut author Patrick Weekes

Write Your Way In Rachel Toor, 2017-08-03 Toor's style is friendly funny and genuinely compelling exhorting students to go deeper with their writing even and especially when the stakes are high School Library Journal Writing for most of us is bound up with anxiety It's even worse when it feels like your whole future or at least where you'll spend the next four years in college is on the line It's easy to understand why so many high school seniors put off working on their applications until the last minute or end up with a generic and clichéd essay The good news You already have the secret sauce for crafting a compelling personal essay your own experiences and your unique voice The best essays rarely catalog how students have succeeded or achieved Good writing shows the reader how you've struggled and describes mistakes you've made Excellent essays express what you're fired up about illustrate how you think and illuminate the ways you've grown More than twenty million students apply to college every year many of them look similar in terms of test scores grades courses taken extracurricular activities Admissions officers wade through piles of files As an applicant you need to think about what will interest an exhausted reader What can you write that will make her argue to admit you instead of the thousands of other applicants A good essay will be conversational and rich in vivid details and it could only be written by one person you This book will help you figure out how to find and present the best in yourself You'll acquire some useful tools for writing well and may even have fun in the process

A Letter from Paris Louisa Deasey, 2020-05-26 A father's long lost letters spark a compelling tale of inheritance and creativity loss and reunion When Louisa Deasey receives a message from a Frenchwoman called Coralie who has found a cache of letters in an attic written about Louisa's father neither woman can imagine the events it will set in motion The letters dated 1949 detail a passionate affair between Louisa's father Denison and Coralie's grandmother Michelle in post war London They spark Louisa to find out more about her father who died when she was six From the seemingly simple question Who was Denison Deasey follows a trail of discovery that leads Louisa to the streets of London to the cafes and restaurants of Paris and a poet's villa in the south of France From her father's secret service in World War II to his relationships with some of the most famous bohemian artists in post war Europe Louisa unearths a portrait of a fascinating man both at the epicenter and the mercy of the social and political currents of his time A Letter from Paris is about the stories we tell ourselves and the secrets the past can uncover showing the power of the written word to cross the bridges of time

Teaching Autoethnography Melissa Tombro,2016-04-29 Teaching Autoethnography Personal Writing in the Classroom is dedicated to the practice of immersive ethnographic and autoethnographic writing that encourages authors to participate in the communities about which they write This book draws not only on critical qualitative inquiry methods such as interview and observation but also on theories and sensibilities from creative writing and performance studies which encourage self reflection and narrative composition Concepts from qualitative inquiry studies which examine everyday life are combined with approaches to the creation of character and scene to help writers develop engaging narratives that examine chosen subcultures and the author's position in relation to her research subjects The book brings together a brief history of first person qualitative research and writing from the past forty years examining the evolution of nonfiction and qualitative approaches in relation to the personal essay A selection of recent student writing in the genre as well as reflective student essays on the experience of conducting research in the classroom is presented in the context of exercises for coursework and beyond Also explored in detail are guidelines for interviewing and identifying subjects and techniques for creating informed sketches and images that engage the reader This book provides approaches anyone can use to explore their communities and write about them first hand The methods presented can be used for a single assignment in a larger course or to guide an entire semester through many levels and varieties of informed personal writing

Street Haunting and Other Essays Virginia Woolf,2014-10-02 Virginia Woolf began writing reviews for the Guardian to make a few pence from her father's death in 1904 and continued until the last decade of her life The result is a phenomenal collection of articles of which this selection offers a fascinating glimpse which display the gifts of a dazzling social and literary critic as well as the development of a brilliant and influential novelist From reflections on class and education to slyly ironic reviews musings on the lives of great men and Street Haunting a superlative tour of her London neighbourhood this is Woolf at her most thoughtful and entertaining

Writing Anthropology Carole McGranahan,2020-05-01 In Writing Anthropology fifty two anthropologists reflect on scholarly writing as both craft and commitment These short essays cover a wide range of territory from ethnography genre and the politics of writing to affect storytelling authorship and scholarly responsibility Anthropological writing is more than just communicating findings anthropologists write to tell stories that matter to be accountable to the communities in which they do their research and to share new insights about the world in ways that might change it for the better The contributors offer insights into the beauty and the function of language and the joys and pains of writing while giving encouragement to stay at it to keep writing as the most important way to not only improve one s writing but to also honor the stories and lessons learned through research Throughout they share new thoughts prompts and agitations for writing that will stimulate conversations that cut across the humanities Contributors Whitney Battle Baptiste Jane Eva Baxter Ruth Behar Adia Benton Lauren Berlant Robin M Bernstein Sarah Besky Catherine Besteman Yarimar Bonilla Kevin Carrico C Anne Claus Sienna R Craig Zo Crossland Lara Deeb K Drybread Jessica Marie Falcone Kim Fortun Kristen R Ghodsee Daniel M Goldstein Donna M Goldstein Sara L Gonzalez Ghassan Hage Carla Jones Ieva Jusionyte Alan Kaiser Barak Kalir Michael Lambek Carole McGranahan Stuart McLean Lisa Sang Mi Min Mary Murrell Kirin Narayan Chelsi West Ohuero Anand Pandian Uzma Z Rizvi Noel B Salazar Bhrigupati Singh Matt Sponheimer Kathleen Stewart Ann Laura Stoler Paul Stoller Nomi Stone Paul Tapsell Katerina Teaiwa Marnie Jane Thomson Gina Athena Ulysse Roxanne Varzi Sita Venkateswar Maria D Vesperi Sasha Su Ling Welland Bianca C Williams Jessica Winegar
