

PROBLEM-CAUSE-SOLUTION SPEECH

General Purpose: to allow the student to prepare/perform a speech to persuade an audience by establishing a problem, cause and offering solutions

Specific Purpose:

Persuade—to convince people to believe or act upon an issue

Due Date: December 9,10,11

Grades:       Speech-----180 points
Two critiques---10 points
Outline-----10 Points

200 total points

Time Limit: 3-5 minutes

The speech pattern must be problem-cause-solution. That means that you must convince your audience that your issue is a problem before you can persuade them to take action on the issue. Do not assume that your audience automatically thinks your issue is a problem—not everyone has the same view of the world as you.

Research:

You must use at least two sources. Your sources can be magazine, internet, pamphlet—whatever it is ****you must remember to cite your sources in the speech.

Counter Argument:

The best arguments realize there is another stance on the issue and can address that stance. To make your argument better, you must acknowledge the other side and give reason to why their solution is not the best and why yours is better.

Visual Aid:

You must use at least one visual aid (poster, model, object, video, other). The visual aid will be graded on value to speech, construction, and use.

Outline

Your outline format is provided for you in this packet. This must be completed and presented before speech to get points needed.

You may not use the following topics:

Abortion, birth control, death penalty, gun control, same-sex marriage, or legalization of marijuana/drugs
