In this marvelous new book, automotive historian, John Gunnell turns his attention from the Spartan ponies and horsepower hogs to focus on a slightly different Ford product. From its modest beginnings in 1955, the Ford Thunderbird's sleek, sporty two-seater was rivalled by Chevy's Corvette, but with its comfort and luxury?and with its wheels as its wings?the T-Bird soared past the competition in convenience and satisfaction as a truly classic American automobile. This book is a must have for those who collect T-Bird advertisements, factory sales literature, and T-Bird related Ford memorabilia, and especially for anyone who has had the pleasure of owning one of these ?Seventh Heaven? classics. The latest market values, engine details, performance options, and VIN decoding, as well as the many conveniences offered for Ford?s ?luxury sports car? are included for all of the hot collectibles, such as the pre-production Fairlane Birds, the ?Early Birds,? the ?Square Birds,? and the ?Big Birds.?

Cruise O Matic Oct 25 2022 The 1950s were the golden age of the American automobile, and the cars were faster, bigger, and more boldly styled than ever before. Sunday driving--Clever-style--in the regal family Ford, Edsel or Plymouth topped the list of national pastimes; and teenagers, behind the wheels of their daddies' thundering T-birds, had fun, fun, fun across America's highways. The economic prosperity of the country made for an "ultramatic" boom in car manufacturing, and the advertising industry followed suit. This reprint of a Chronicle Books classic collects the "masterpieces" of automobile advertising, culled from the pages of such popular periodicals as Life, The Saturday Evening Post, Collier's, Look, and Holiday. Their colorful illustrations and catchy copy give these ads a "power-packed beauty" all their own, offering a fun look at 50s culture and values. So take a cruise down memory lane with this fond look back on a time when tail fins and chrome were the standard, and the American car was the true King of the Road.
